Transgressing Boundaries in Jeanette Winterson's Fiction Sonia Front, 2009 The subsequent chapters of the book deal with selected questions from Jeanette Winterson's fiction such as gender issues love and eroticism language and time constituting areas within which Winterson's characters seek their identity As they contest and repudiate cliché's stereotypes and patterns their journey of self-discovery is accomplished through transgression The book analyzes how the subversion of phallogocentric narrative and scenarios entails the reenvisioning of relations between the genders and reconceptualization of female desire The author attempts to determine the consequences of Winterson's manipulations with gender sexuality and time and her disruption of the binary system

Empty Space and Points of Light Marie Herholdt Jørgensen, The book presents a study of key issues in Winterson's oeuvre The selected works include Oranges are Not the Only Fruit Lies The Power Book and Written on the Body works that are all concerned with the self in relation to the concepts of time love gender and the body Drawing on Jungian ideas of quest and individual and Queer theory Marie Herholdt Jørgensen shows how these concepts in the works of Winterson are grounded in the prospect of numerous potential realities in which several narrations of the self are made possible Winterson disrupts the notion of one objective reality and instead centers on the individual as the narrator of various versions of reality and the self The book contains summaries of all of Winterson's novels making the book accessible for readers previously unfamiliar with Jeanette Winterson
