Introduction To Documentary Production A Guide For Media:

Introduction to Documentary Production Searle Kochberg, 2002 Introduction to Documentary Production A Guide for Media Students is designed for students in Higher and Further Education who are approaching documentary production for the first time The book is written in an accessible style by Media staff at the University of Portsmouth all of whom have backgrounds in media production journalism The book covers the making of documentaries from concept through production to post production and includes close readings of documentary makers intent and target audiences Documentary Paul Ward, 2005 In discussing films such as Touching the Void 2003 Capturing the Friedmans 2003 and the work of Nick Broomfield this timely introduction to the growing field of documentary explores the definition and understanding of the form as well as the relationship between documentary and drama specifically the notion of reconstruction and re enactment Paul Ward also examines animated documentaries the fertile meeting point of comedy and documentary modes the ability of documentary to accurately represent historical events and feature length contemporary works that have achieved widespread cinematic release American Cinematographer, 2003 Introduction to Documentary, Third Edition Bill Nichols, 2017-03-27 The third edition of Bill Nichols s best selling text provides an up to date introduction to the most important issues in documentary history and criticism A new chapter I Want to Make a Documentary Where Do I Start guides readers through the steps of planning and preproduction and includes an example of a project proposal for a film that went on to win awards at major festivals Designed for students in any field that makes use of visual evidence and persuasive strategies Introduction to Documentary identifies the genre s distinguishing qualities and teaches the viewer how to read documentary film Each chapter takes up a discrete question from How did documentary filmmaking get started to Why are ethical issues central to documentary filmmaking Here Nichols has fully rewritten each chapter for greater clarity and ease of use including revised discussions of earlier films and new commentary on dozens of recent films from The Cove to The Act of Killing and from Gasland to Restrepo Introduction to Documentary, Fourth Edition Bill Nichols, Jaimie Baron, 2024-08-06 The fourth edition of Bill Nichols s best selling text Introduction to Documentary has been vastly altered in its entirety to bring this indispensable textbook up to date and reconceptualize aspects of its treatment of documentaries past and present Here Nichols with Jaimie Baron has edited each chapter for clarity and ease of use and expanded the book with updates and new ideas Featuring abundant examples and images Introduction to Documentary Fourth Edition is designed to facilitate a rich understanding of how cinema can be used to document the historical world as it is seen by a wide variety of filmmakers Subjectivity expressivity persuasiveness and credibility are crucial factors that move documentary film away from objective documentation and toward the thought provoking realm of arguments perceptions and perspectives that draw from a filmmaker s unique sensibility to help us see the world as we have not seen it before Exploring ethics history different modes of documentary key social issues addressed and both the origins and evolution of this form this updated volume also offers guidance on how to write about documentaries and how to begin the process of making one Introduction to Documentary Fourth Edition will be of use not only to film students but also those in adjacent fields where visual representations of reality play an important role journalism sociology anthropology feminist and ethnic studies among others Guide to College Courses in Film and Television ,1980 Guide for the Audiovisual Industry ,1994 Which Degree Guide ,2001
