Everyday Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran,2008 The story format is one of the most effective ways to engage students attention right from the start Each chapter includes a list of science concepts explored targeted strategies for using the stories with children in grades K 8 and key matching story concepts with corresponding standards in the National Science Education Standards Even More Everyday Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran,2010 What are the odds of a meteor hitting your house What are warm clothes anyway Do you get more sunlight from Daylight Saving Time Everyone loves a good mystery and these unfold in the 15 stories presented in Even More Everyday Science Mysteries the third volume in author Richard Konicek Moran s award winning series Again the author uses stories without endings to teach a science principle allowing the students to investigate how each story can be resolved All the stories relate to the world around us and encourage students to take ownership of their learning In Here s the Crusher family members ponder what could have crushed a plastic soda bottle sitting on a table By exploring each family member s idea common misconceptions are uncovered and discussed In Florida Cars Amber seeks out the causes of rust on cars from Florida She experiments with nails to try to discover what ingredients produce rust Your students will tackle Amber s problem and reach their own conclusions Science topics explored include evaporation erosion thermal energy atmospheric pressure buoyancy and density These stories are bound to reveal the wonderful ideas all students have give them the confidence to explore their own thinking and provide opportunities for them to do science rather than have science done to them Page Keeley NSTA President 2008 09

Yet More Everyday Science Mysteries Richard Konicek-Moran,2011 In the fourth book of this award winning series author Richard Konicek Moran explores 15 new mysteries children and adults encounter in their daily lives Relating the mysteries to experiences familiar to elementary and middle school students the stories show how science is part of everyday life and initiate inquiry based learning by leaving each mystery without an ending Students identify the problem to be solved formulate questions form hypotheses test their ideas and come up with possible explanations More Everyday Science Mysteries: Stories for Inquiry-Based Science Teaching Richard Konicek-Moran,2009-04 Through 15 mystery stories this book memorably illustrates science concepts for students and reinforces the value of learning science through inquiry Each mystery presents opportunities for students to create questions form hypotheses test their ideas and come up with explanations Focused on concepts such as periodic motion thermodynamics temperature and energy and sound these mysteries draw students into the stories by grounding them in experiences students are familiar with providing them with a foundation for classroom discussion and inquiry Everyday Science Edith Lillian Smith,1925 General Science, Grades Seven and Eight Denver Public Schools,1924 The Teaching of Nature Study and Elementary Science for Grades Kindergarten to Eight New Jersey.
