Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages Weixiao Wei, James Schnell, 2023-05-12 The Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages offers a useful collection of papers that presents rhetorical analysis of the discursive practice in different cultural settings Covering issues from America to Europe and Asia and topics from politics to media education to science agriculture to literature and so on the handbook describes how language can guide listeners interpretations alter their perceptions and shape their worldviews This book offers a solid foundation for rhetorical studies to become an essential discipline in arts and humanities engendering innovative theory and applications in areas such as linguistics literature history cultural studies political science and sociology This handbook will be crucial for students and researchers in areas such as literature and linguistics communication studies political science and arts and humanities in general This book will also be useful to social science education business law science and engineering departments due to its coverage of rhetoric in a multidisciplinary and multilingual context Chapter 16 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Rereading America Gary Colombo, Robert Cullen, Bonnie Lisle, 2013-05-02 Rereading America remains the most widely adopted book of its kind because of its unique approach to the issue of cultural diversity Unlike other multicultural composition readers that settle for representing the plurality of American voices and cultures Rereading America encourages students to grapple with the real differences in perspectives that arise in our complex society With extensive editorial apparatus that puts readings from the mainstream into conversation with readings from the margins Rereading America provokes students to explore the foundations and contradictions of our dominant cultural myths

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Karen Tei Yamashita Ruth Y. Hsu, Pamela Thoma, 2021-10-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching Karen Tei Yamashita's works such as I Hotel Tropic of Orange and Brazil Maru including considerations of immigration transnationalism environmental concerns magical realism and postmodern narrative techniques Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in American ethnic American and Asian American literature and cultural studies

Focus on Writing Laurie McMillan, 2018-10-30 This first year composition rhetoric reader uses a Writing about Writing WAW approach and a conversational style to help students engage in threshold concepts and transfer what they know about writing to new situations Each chapter asks a key question such as Why Write or What Is the Rhetorical Situation and Why Should I Care about It Preliminary answers to the chapter question are provided in accessible prose and these initial ideas are supplemented with a selection of three or four readings and a list of recommended online texts Prompts for informal and formal writing projects keep the focus on writing and help students apply writing studies scholarship to their own lives in meaningful ways A companion website includes recommended WAW resources assignment supports and links to additional
