Hybridity in Life Writing Arnaud Schmitt, 2024-04-28 This book offers new perspectives on text image hybridity in the context of life writing Each chapter explores the very topical issue of how writers and artists combine two media in order to enhance the autobiographical narrative and experience of the reader It questions the position of images in relation to text both on the page and in terms of the power balance between media It also shows how hybridity operates beyond a semantic and cultural balance of power as the combination of text and images are able to produce content that would not have been possible separately Including a range of life writing and different visual media from paintings and photography to graphic memoirs and social media this edited collection investigates the point at which an image whether fixed or moving enters the autobiographical act and confronts the verbal form

Intensities and Lines of Flight Antonio Calcagno, Jim Vernon, Steve G. Lofts, 2014-05-08 The writings of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari offer the most enduring and controversial contributions to the theory and practice of art in post war Continental thought However these writings are both so wide ranging and so challenging that much of the synoptic work on Deleuzo Guattarian aesthetics has taken the form of sympathetic exegesis rather than critical appraisal This rich and original collection of essays authored by both major Deleuzian scholars and practicing artists and curators offers an important critique of Deleuze and Guattari's legacy in relation to a multitude of art forms including painting cinema television music architecture literature drawing and installation art Inspired by the implications of Deleuze and Guattari's work on difference and multiplicity and with a focus on the intersection of theory and practice the book represents a major interdisciplinary contribution to Deleuze Guattarian aesthetics

Hold Still Sally Mann, 2015-05-12 This National Book Award finalist is a revealing and beautifully written memoir and family history from acclaimed photographer Sally Mann In this groundbreaking book a unique interplay of narrative and image Mann's preoccupation with family race mortality and the storied landscape of the American South are revealed as almost genetically predetermined written into her DNA by the family history that precedes her Sorting through boxes of family papers and yellowed photographs she finds more than she bargained for deceit and scandal alcohol domestic abuse car crashes bogeymen clandestine affairs dearly loved and disputed family land racial complications vast sums of money made and lost the return of the prodigal son and maybe even bloody murder In lyrical prose and startlingly revealing photographs she crafts a totally original form of personal history that has the page turning drama of a great novel but is firmly rooted in the fertile soil of her own life
