Doke,2017-09-20 Originally published in 1945 this volume represented the first to classify Bantu languages This volume does not record all the dialects but makes reference to those in which some grammatical study has been done and classifies them according to mainly geographical zones Owing to tribal migrations individual members of a particular zone may be living among members of a different zone as has been the case with the Ngoni South Eastern Zone who are found among the Eastern Bantu but the zone label is taken from the habitat of the majority      Time and the Work of Anthropology Johanne Fabian,2014-01-14 The development of the dialogical approach the autobiographical perspective and the central role of text interpretation are all seen as characteristics of post modern ethnography arising from the daily chores of field research The breakthrough into time and history away from the timeless theorizing of structuralism and functionalism is seen as inevitable when anthropology is forced to think about its own epistemology Another current concern is taken up with reflections on the politics of representing the other In the later essays he opposes post modern fashions and re asserts the need to continue with a truly critical agenda      Africa ,1930 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books      Time and the Work of Anthropology Johannes Fabian,1991 Critical Essays 1971 1991 Culture Time and the Object of Anthropology Taxonomy and Ideology Genres in an Emerging Tradition Text and Terror Rule and Process Six Theses Regarding the Anthropology of African Religious Movements Missions and the Colonization of African Languages Religious and Secular Colonization How
