

Chapter 10: Environmental Issues

Retouching Activity

Read the passage carefully and fill the blanks with an appropriate word or phrase. Write the answers in the spaces provided in the text.

1. Land-use changes involve both the construction of infrastructure and the removal of forests.
2. All the land-use changes pose both the benefits and the drawbacks that influence the quality of life and well-being.
3. Urban sprawl involves the expansion of regions into rural or forest areas.
4. Rural development covers and includes the growth of infrastructure.
5. Water pollution occurs in regions with high population density.
6. It causes both pollution and degradation of the environment by releasing the harmful substances into the water body.
7. The major pollution is the release of the harmful substances into the water body by the factories and other industrial units.
8. Steps to stop pollution are to reduce the release of the harmful substances into the water body and to use the recycled water and other resources in the factories and other industrial units.
9. Land-use changes involve both the construction of infrastructure and the removal of forests and other natural resources.
