the end of the movie order is restored bad guys are converted and families are reunited Like American movies Indonesian films reflect the understandings and concerns of the culture and era in which they are made Thus Indonesian preoccupations with order and harmony national unity and modernization motivate the plots of many films Cinema has not traditionally been within the purview of anthropologists but Karl Heider demonstrates how Indonesian movies are profoundly Indonesian Produced in the national language by Indonesians from various regions the films are intended for audiences across the diverse archipelago Heider examines these films to identify pan Indonesian cultural patterns and to show how these cultural principles shape the movies and sometimes how the movies influence the culture This anthropological approach to Indonesian film opens up the medium of Asian cinema to a new group of scholars Indonesian Cinema should be of interest to social scientists Asianists film scholars and anyone concerned with the role of popular culture in developing countries
