

Great Dane Colors

Great Danes come in six standard colors. Any color other than a standard color is considered a non-standard color (mismark). Some, but not all, non-standard colors are the result of inadvisable crossing of certain color families. Genetic color testing can be done to determine what colors a dog carries for and should be done if there is any question on what color(s) a dog carries for.

Fawn

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

The color shall be yellow gold with a black mask. Black should appear on the eye rims and eyebrows, and may appear on the ears and tail tip. The deep yellow gold must always be given the preference. White markings at the chest and toes, black-tipped dirty colored fawns are not desirable. Fawns are in the Fawn/Brindle color family and should only be bred to fawns and brindles.

Brindle

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

The base color shall be yellow gold and always brindled with strong black-rose stripes in a chevron-pattern. A black mask is preferred. Black should appear on the eye rims and eyebrows, and may appear on the ears and tail tip. The more intensive the base color and the more distinct and even the brindling, the more preferred will be the color. Too much or too little brindling are equally undesirable. White markings at the chest and toes, black-tipped dirty colored brindles are not desirable. Brindles are in the Fawn/Brindle color family and should only be bred to fawns and brindles.

Black

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

The color shall be a glossy black. White markings at the chest and toes are not desirable. The black color family has three sub-groups: Blacks out of Black (Standard), Blacks out of Blue breeding and Blacks out of Harlequin breeding. Black-and-white markings can be bred to any of the subgroup breeds, but the Harlequin color family and Black should not be bred to the Harlequin color family. Blacks carrying for Harlequin should not be bred to Blue.

Blue

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

The color shall be a pure steel blue. White markings at the chest and toes are not desirable. Blue is a dilute, and can be bred to Blue, Black-bred Black or Blue-bred black. Blue should not be bred to the Fawn/Brindle or Harlequin color family.

Harlequin

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

Base color shall be pure white with black, burn patches irregularly and well distributed over the entire body, in pure white-neck is preferred. These patches are normal. No patch should be so large that it appears to be a blanket. The Harlequin color family is genetically complex. Standard and non-standard colors bred by the Harlequin color family include Mantles, Whites, Merles, Phobias, Blacks with too much white and other variations. The Harlequin color family should not be bred to the Fawn/Brindle, Blue or Blue-bred Black color families.

Mantle

STANDARD

NON-STANDARD

The color shall be black and white with a solid black blanket extending over the body. Black and white markings on the chest is optional, whole white color preferred. A white chest, white on part or whole of lower legs and white tipped black. A small white marking on the black blanket is acceptable, as is a break in the white color. Mantle is a color of the Harlequin color family and should be bred in the same manner as Harlequin.

Any variance in color or markings described above shall be faulted to the extent of the deviation.

Any Great Dane which does not fall within the above color classifications must be disqualified.

The Complete Guide to the Great Dane Malcolm Lee, 2020-03-26 The Complete Guide to the Great Dane Malcolm Lee, 2020-03-26

Once you have been lucky enough to welcome a Dane into your family there is no going back. These gentle giants need lots of affection and socialization. They are perfect family pets and are fiercely protective of the young Greats with kids of all ages; they are patient, loving, and make great playmates. Whether you are selecting a new Great Dane puppy from a breeder or adopting a Great Dane from a rescue, The Complete Guide to Great Danes will help you successfully find, raise, and train your new puppy. Chapter topics include: Finding your Great Dane, Preparing for your New Arrival, Welcoming your Great Dane Home, Successful Great Dane Parenting, Nutrition and Diet, Grooming and Care, An Introduction to Training, Raising Multiple Pets, Socializing with Dogs and Humans outside the Family, Traveling with a Giant, Healthy Body, Healthy Mind, Advanced Great Dane Training, Dealing with Unacceptable Behavior, Advanced Health and Senior Dane Care. A Great Dane is as happy in a condo as it is in a castle; all it needs is love and attention. Remember, though, this breed's huge size means it takes up a lot of physical space on your bed, on your sofa, on your lap, and especially in your heart, which is where he or she will always want to be. What's more, raise a Great Dane alongside other animals, and you will have no problem. They crave company, regardless of whether their brother or sister is a Pug or a Pointer. Like all big dogs, though, they need to be trained as puppies and learn how not to throw their considerable weight around. Great Danes love to range, meaning they need space to move around freely rather than intense exercise. So if you are welcoming a Dane into a small-size home, be ready to go out on regular walks. If you are thinking about making a Great Dane a part of your family or are already a Dane owner, then be aware a Great Dane is a huge commitment. From choosing your Great Dane to managing his or her final journey across the Rainbow Bridge, read on and discover everything you need to know about these big-hearted hounds.

ABOUT THE BOOK Great Danes sometimes known as German Mastiffs are powerful dogs with robust galloping figures and a majestic stance Their even temper combined with their charming and affectionate nature often leads them to be referred to as gentle giants The lineage of the Great Dane can be traced back to at least 36 B C where images of the breed appeared on Roman coins It is possible that their history goes back even further The American Kennel Club reports how historians have found ancient carvings of animals resembling the Great Dane on Egyptian monuments dated around 3000 B C Chinese literature from 1121 B C also provides a written description of dogs similar to Great Danes One of the tallest dog breeds in the world the Great Dane could never be described as diminutive in stature Although the breed is often characterized alongside other giant dog breeds like the Old English Mastiff New Foundland and the Saint Bernard in practice it is often a Great Dane that is announced to be the tallest living dog in any one year

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Crate training can be useful when housetraining a Great Dane A crate with warm bedding and chew toys will allow your dog to indulge in his natural instincts to make a den Dogs are reluctant to soil the area in which they sleep Crates must always be introduced gradually and should never be used as a punishment Keep in mind that the crate will need to be sufficiently large enough to accommodate the rapid growth and size of a Great Dane

Socializing Your Great Dane It is imperative that you properly socialize a Great Dane puppy This process will ensure the emotional health of your dog and the physical safety of people and other animals You should aim to introduce your dog to a wide variety of people animals and environments A Great Dane socialized in this manner will be a happier more confident dog and less prone to skittish behavior The process of socializing your Great Dane should start by introducing him to many different people who should be encouraged to pet him and offer a small treat Your dog will learn to associate the people around him with positive experiences Buy a copy to keep reading
