University and the Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union to publish a comprehensive edition of Washington's correspondence. Letters written to Washington as well as letters and documents written by him are being published in the complete edition that will consist of approximately ninety volumes. The work is now 2011 more than two thirds complete. The edition is supported financially by grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, the Mount Vernon Ladies Association, the University of Virginia and gifts from private foundations and individuals. Today there are copies of over 135 000 Washington documents in the project's document room. This is one of the richest collections of American historical manuscripts extant. There is almost no facet of research on life and enterprise in the late colonial and early national periods that will not be enhanced by material from these documents. The publication of Washington's papers will make this source material available not only to scholars but to all Americans interested in the founding of their nation. Calendar of State Papers Great Britain. Public Record Office, 1870 Papers of Robert Morris, 1781-84, Volume 9
Robert Morris, 1999-06-17. Although Robert Morris 1734-1806 the Financier of the American Revolution was a signer of the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution, a powerful committee chairman in the Continental Congress, an important figure in Pennsylvania politics and perhaps the most prominent businessman of his day, he is today least known of the great national leaders of the Revolutionary era. This oversight is being rectified by this definitive publication project that transcribes and carefully annotates the Office of Finance diary, correspondence and other official papers written by Morris during his administration as superintendent of finance from 1781 to 1784. We, the People
Edward Everett Hale, 2017-10-15. Excerpt from We the People: A Series of Papers on Topics of Today. In the autumn of 1902 Mr Hearst of the New York American asked me if I would furnish three articles for that paper in every week of the next three months. I was very glad to have this opportunity for addressing a great number of people every few days. Mr Hearst is kind enough to permit me to collect these papers and print them together. In the collection mixed in with the other papers I have included articles which I wrote at the same time and later in the winter for The Record of Lend a Hand and for the Christian Register. My younger friends think that the younger readers of the new century will not know that to us old fellows leader means a leading article. But for some doubt here I should have called this collection thirty-nine Leaders. I find in the Century Dictionary that Mr David J Hill in writing of William Cullen Bryant says: "About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
