Shaffer, 2009-02-09 Written in clear jargon free prose this introductory text charts the variety of novel writing in English in the second half of the twentieth century An engaging introduction to the English language novel from 1950 2000 exclusive of the US Provides students both with strategies for interpretation and with fresh readings of selected seminal texts Maps out the most important contexts and concepts for understanding this fiction Features readings of ten influential English language novels including Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale Kazuo Ishiguro s Remains of the Day and Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion
