The Founder's Dilemmas Noam Wasserman, 2012-03-25 A guide to the early decisions that can make or break startup ventures Often downplayed in the excitement of starting up a new business venture is one of the most important decisions entrepreneurs will face should they go it alone or bring in cofounders hires and investors to help build the business More than just financial rewards are at stake Friendships and relationships can suffer Bad decisions at the inception of a promising venture lay the foundations for its eventual ruin The Founder s Dilemmas is the first book to examine the early decisions by entrepreneurs that can make or break a startup and its team Drawing on a decade of research Noam Wasserman reveals the common pitfalls founders face and how to avoid them He looks at whether it is a good idea to cofound with friends or relatives how and when to split the equity within the founding team and how to recognize when a successful founder CEO should exit or be fired Wasserman explains how to anticipate avoid or recover from disastrous mistakes that can splinter a founding team strip founders of control and leave founders without a financial payoff for their hard work and innovative ideas He highlights the need at each step to strike a careful balance between controlling the startup and attracting the best resources to grow it and demonstrates why the easy short term choice is often the most perilous in the long term The Founder s Dilemmas draws on the inside stories of founders like Evan Williams of Twitter and Tim Westergren of Pandora while mining quantitative data on almost ten thousand founders People problems are the leading cause of failure in startups This book offers solutions

Financing of Start-ups. A financing framework for technology start-ups in the UK for the seed & start-up round Patrick Renner, 2019-01-09 Master s Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Economics Innovation economics grade 1 0 University of Glasgow Adam Smith Business School language English abstract Young businesses especially in the technology sector are the backbone in facilitating the creation of innovative new ventures as well as strengthen the development of existing organizations and as a result increasing national economic growth One of the most important decisions the founders of these technology start ups have to make is the financial one With new emerged sources of funding this decision gets even more complex and old guidelines are not very helpful anymore The new introduced financial framework which is based on the financial decisions of four case companies will assist entrepreneurs when it comes to the question where capital can be found and which source of funding is the most suitable one for his or her venture

The Migration of Venture-capital Funded Startups from Regional Entrepreneurial Ecosystems Per Hulthen, 2020 We analyze 20 years of venture capital funded startups founded between 1992 and 2011 in the Front Range around Denver Colorado and in the Bay Area around San Francisco California including Silicon Valley While Silicon Valley is the classic model for entrepreneurial ecosystems the Denver Front Range may in fact be more representative of most regional economies The Bay Area gave rise to 6 938 VC funded startups in our data over those 20 years while Colorado gave rise to just 629 however the two regions startups exhibited a very similar distribution across industries and almost identical rates of failure and success as well as types of exits
