ABSTRACT The 2021 military coup ended a decade of reforms and shattered Myanmar s political landscape This event has triggered conflict in nearly all regions of the country as well as numerous deaths arbitrary detentions massive population displacements and migrations and a dramatic drop in people s livelihood The realm of education has been at the heart of great political and cultural battles throughout the country s history playing decisive roles to legitimize and to oppose colonial and independent governments including repressive military regimes With a myriad of actors demonstrating unshakable determination and resilience in their opposition to the coup the education sector has certainly held its place as a key component of Myanmar s politics this time around As part of the Civil Disobedience Movement civil servants and students have massively boycotted the national education system Numerous historical and newly created non state education systems also play increasingly important roles in providing an alternative to education under the control of the military These education providers with broad and partly overlapping categories such as pro revolution NUG ethnic monastic private or Chinese operate both within and beyond State controlled territories Many of them face daunting challenges including extremely limited resources and the use of deadly violence by the military Mobilizing a wide historical and geographical perspective and using a simple transversal lens of quantity quality and identity this book aims to document and make sense of these dramatic and fast evolving developments towards a better understanding of the opportunities and challenges concerning education under and beyond the current military regime

KEYWORDS Education Schooling Myanmar Post Coup Conflict Identity Language in education Language politics Nation building national narratives Non State Education systems Resilience
