Ethics History Theory And Contemporary Issues:

Ethics Steven M. Cahn, Peter J. Markie, 2012 Ethics History Theory and Contemporary Issues Fifth Edition features sixty nine selections organized into three parts providing instructors with great flexibility in designing and teaching a variety of courses in moral philosophy. Spanning 2 500 years of ethical theory the first part Historical Sources ranges from ancient Greece to the twentieth century. It moves from classical thought through medieval views to modern theories culminating with leading nineteenth and twentieth century thinkers. The second part Modern Ethical Theory includes many of the most important essays of the past century. The discussion of utilitarianism, Kantianism, egoism and relativism continues in the work of major contemporary philosophers while landmark selections reflect concern with moral language and the justification of morality. The concepts of duty, justice and rights are explored as well as recent views on cultural relativism and an ethic influenced by feminist concerns. In the third part Contemporary Moral Problems the readings present the current debates over abortion, euthanasia, famine relief, animal rights, environmentalism and the use of torture in interrogations as well as essays on death and the meaning of life. Wherever possible each reading is printed in its entirety. The fifth edition features new readings from Cicero, Barbara Herman and Judith Jarvis Thomson, an expanded selection from Joseph Butler's Fifteen Sermons and a new translation of Kant's Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals. Narrative Theology and Moral Theology Alexander Lucie-Smith, 2016-04-15 Moral thinking today finds itself stranded between the particular and the universal Alasdair MacIntyre's work on narrative discussed here along with that of Stanley Hauerwas and H T Engelhardt aims to undo the perceived damage done by the Enlightenment by returning to narrative and abandoning the illusion of a disembodied reason that claims to be able to give a coherent explanation for everything It is precisely this a theory that holds good for all cases that John Rawls proposed drawing on the heritage of Emmanuel Kant Who is right Must universality be abandoned Must we only think about morality in terms that are relative bound by space and time Alexander Lucie Smith attempts to answer these questions by examining the nature of narrative itself as well as the particular narratives of Rawls and St Augustine Bound and rooted as they are in history and personal experience narratives nevertheless strain at the limits imposed on them It is Lucie Smith's contention that each narrative that points to a lived morality exists against the background of an infinite horizon and thus it is that the particular and the rooted can also make us aware of the universal and unchanging

On Moral Law and Quest for Selfhood Mohan Parasain, 2016-07-15 This book offers an original intersection of concepts from Immanuel Kant's moral command ethics and Søren Kierkegaard's existential ethics The Kantian formulation of moral law is based on theoretical ground while Kierkegaardian ethics of the quest for selfhood views it as the very act of living The present work provides an account of both these perspectives and questions whether these approaches to morality are mutually exclusionary Using Slavoj Žižek's parallax view in the realm of morality it argues that moral philosophy must engage with a constant critique of difference around which the transformation of our various perspectives to morality revolves This work appeals for furtherance of the conversation model and participation of perspectives to transcend positional confinement It advocates the traversing of the ethical parallax to allow for intellectual openness and an empathetic perception of the other Engaging and well researched this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of ethics political philosophy and continental philosophy
