Wounds that Do Not Bind James R. Acker,David R. Karp,2006 For more information about the authors click here This volume presents perspectives of murder victims family members academics and crime victims advocates regarding an intensely debated issue about which surprisingly little information exists the significance of capital punishment to murder victims survivors The book includes more than twenty chapters that examine a variety of issues concerning these survivors or co victims and the death penalty These chapters present the personal accounts of victims family members experiences with the criminal justice system and examine relevant legal and research issues including the use of victim impact evidence in capital trials how the capital punishment process affects co victims what is known about the immediate and long term needs of murder victims survivors and how those needs can be addressed A valuable collection Crime Victims Report This manuscript is unique exploring an area that has generally been neglected in both the scholarly and public press The academic chapters are well referenced and adequately indexed The book is well written with clear prose within the reach of most readers CHOICE Magazine Wounds That Do Not Bind will be most effective in undergraduate criminal courses it offers students a rich portrait of victim based perspectives not likely to be found in textbooks The book should also be read by key criminal justice practitioners prosecutors defense attorneys judges and police many of whom might gain some startling insights into their own behaviors and their impact on outsiders Law Politics Book Review

Malta and the European Union Julia Neumeyer,2007 How do factors such as small size insularity vulnerability and remoteness influence a small state s behaviour in international relations What are the major problems and events shaping Malta EU relations How can Malta s position in the EU be described In which way can this small island state defend and enforce its own interests in such a dominant regional organisation in which all members varying in size and power try to protect and press ahead their specific aims This thesis is an attempt to answer these questions and to provide a basis for further discussions and elaboration Entrepreneurship ,2010 Collections ,2005 Asbestos Bankruptcy Trusts Lloyd S. Dixon,Geoffrey McGovern,Amy Coombe,2010 This report describes the creation organization and operation of asbestos personal injury trusts and compiles publicly available information on the assets outlays and governing boards of the 26 largest trusts The authors find that the publicly available information provides a rich source of information on trust activity but that more detailed information is needed to determine their impact on important compensation outcomes

Bankrupting the Enemy Edward S. Miller,2007 Award winning author Edward S Miller contends that the United States forced Japan into international bankruptcy to deter its aggression While researching newly declassified records the retired chief financial executive of a Fortune 500 resources corporation uncovered just how much money mattered The Japanese government had a huge cache of dollars fraudulently hidden in New York that once discovered it scrambled to extract But in July 1941 President Roosevelt froze the money in an effort to bring Japan to its senses not its knees His intentions were thwarted however by opportunistic bureaucrats who maneuvered to deny Japan the dollars needed to buy oil and other resources for its economic survival Miller s analysis of prewar documents including a massive OSS State Department study clearly demonstrates that the deprivations facing the Japanese people as a result of the freeze buttressed Japan s choice of war at Pearl Harbor Jacket The Burnout Fix: Overcome Overwhelm, Beat Busy, and Sustain Success in the New World of Work Jacinta M. Crossley,2008 This book applies the work of Noam Chomsky Edward Herman Edward Said and several others on international politics and the supportive role of the media intellectuals and academics to contemporary Christian origins and New Testament scholarship Part One looks at the ways in which New Testament and Christian origins scholarship has historically been influenced by its political and social settings over the past hundred years or so Moving on to the present the following chapter then applies Herman and Chomskys propagandist model of manufacturing consent in the mass media to the recent explosion of biblical scholars writing on the internet in particularly biblio bloggers It is clear that political views in biblio blogging conform strikingly to the emphases that come through in Herman and Chomskys analysis of the mass media and intellectuals particularly with the standard lines on the war on terror and views on the contemporary Middle East The rest of the book takes up modified key areas of the propagandist model in more detail Part Two looks at the Orientalist rhetoric of clashing civilisations and how this relates to the war on terror and the creation of Islam Arabs Middle East etc as the Great Enemy in the media and relevant intellectual thought since the 1970s and to use Derek Gregorys phrase hideously emboldened in the war on terror The next chapter then shows how this context has had a highly noticeable impact on the use of social sciences in New Testament and Christian origins scholarship in particular the stark generalisations of scholars using cultural social anthropology based on contemporary studies of the Middle East Disturbingly some of this scholarship has many rhetorical links with Anglo American foreign policy interests in the Middle East and beyond making some politically charged statements that cohere closely with recent intellectual defences of actions in Iraq Palestine and beyond Part Three looks at issues of Palestine and Israel in the media alongside Christian secular and relevant intellectual thought since the Six Day War of 1967 focusing in particular on the dramatic shift towards widespread support for Israel This also includes an analysis of the recent and controversial case of Nadia Abu el Hajs tenure at Barnard The following chapter shows how this interest in Israel has had a profound impact on historical Jesus and Christian origins studies particularly the strange emphasis on Jewishness and misplaced allegations of antisemitism since the 1970s Despite the shift in support of Israel this is rarely done for love of Jews Judaism Israel or Israelis because there remains a notable cultural political and religious superiority in Anglo American scholarship While owing much also to an Orientalist tradition this too is strongly echoed in scholarship of Christian origins where for all the emphasis on the Jewishness of Jesus and the first Christians it is extremely common to find Jesus or the first Christians being better than Judaism or overriding key symbols of Judaism as constructed by scholarship done ironically by frequent ignoring of relevant Jewish texts The end results of contemporary scholarship are not dramatically different from the results of the anti Jewish and antisemitic scholarship of much of the twentieth century
