Pagano, Ann O'M. Bowman, 1997-09-05 The authors draw on comparative data from 10 medium sized cities and examine 40 city supported development projects to show how city investment in and regulation of development projects is the most effective way for political leaders to control and shape the future of their city 19 illustrations Promoting the General Welfare Alan S. Gerber, Eric M. Patashnik, 2007-05-01 The U S Constitution calls on the government to promote the general welfare In this provocative and innovative book a distinguished roster of political scientists and economists evaluates its ability to carry out this task The first section of the book analyzes government performance in the areas of health transportation housing and education suggesting why suboptimal policies often prevail The second set of chapters examines two novel and sometimes controversial tools that can be used to improve policy design information markets and laboratory experiments Finally the third part of the book asks how three key institutions Congress the party system and federalism affect government's ability to solve important social problems These chapters also raise the disturbing possibility that recent political developments have contributed to a decline in governmental problem solving activity Taken together the essays in this volume suggest that opportunities to promote the common good are frequently missed in modern American government But the book also carries a more hopeful message By identifying possible solutions to the problems created by weak incentives poor information and inadequate institutional capacity Promoting the General Welfare shows how government performance can be improved Contributors include Eugene Bardach University of California Berkeley Sarah Binder Brookings Institution and George Washington University Morris P Fiorina Stanford University Jay P Greene University of Arkansas Robin Hanson George Mason University Charles A Holt University of Virginia David R Mayhew Yale University Edgar O Olsen University of Virginia Mark Carl Rom Georgetown University Roberta Romano Yale Law School William M Shobe University of Virginia Angela M Smith University of Virginia Aidan R Vining Simon Fraser University David L Weimer University of Wisconsin Madison and Clifford Winston Brook
