Changing Core Mathematics David C. Arney, Donald B. Small, 2002
Mathematicians engineers and physical scientists discuss how the first two years of a core college mathematics program should change over the next five to ten years to meet the mathematical needs of partner disciplines and society's needs arising from globalization and the information age They examine issues related to goals and content anticipated advances in technology and new instructional techniques and make recommendations for future course designs that emphasize modeling inquiry and conceptual understanding Arney is dean of the School of Mathematics and Sciences at the College of Saint Rose Small is on the faculty of the Department of Mathematics at the United States Military Academy There is no subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Teaching First Thomas Rishel, 2000 In Teaching First Thomas Rishel draws on his forty years of teaching experience to address the nuts and bolts issues of teaching college mathematics This book is written for the mathematics TA or young faculty member who may be wondering just where and how to start Rishel opens the eyes of the reader to pitfalls they may never have considered and offers advice for balancing an obligation to the student with an obligation to mathematics Throughout he provides answers to seemingly daunting questions shared by most new TAs such as how to keep a classroom active and lively how to prepare writing assignments tests and quizzes how exactly to write a letter of recommendation and how to pace minute by minute the mathematical talks one will be called upon to give This book is Rishel's answer to those who may suggest that good teaching is innate and cannot be taught This he emphatically denies and he insists that solid teaching starts with often overlooked seeming trivialities that one needs to master before exploring theories of learning Along the way he also covers the general issues that teachers of all subjects eventually experience fairness in grading professionalism among students and colleagues identifying and understanding student types technology in the classroom All of the subjects in this book are considered within the context of Rishel's experience as a mathematics teacher All are illustrated with anecdotes and suggestions specific to the teaching of mathematics Teaching First is a comprehensive guide for a mathematics TA from the first semester preparations through the unforeseen challenges of accepting a faculty position Its aim is to prepare the new TA with clear suggestions for rapidly improving their teaching abilities Publisher Resources in Education ,1997 Historical Perspectives for the Reform of Mathematics Curriculum David Dennis,1995 The Cumulative Book Index ,1996 A world list of books in the English language Bulletin of the Belgian Mathematical Society, Simon Stevin ,1999 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2001 Logolearning Dale Parnell,1994 The views of Dale Parnell on contextual learning have become an important component of any comprehensive educational reform When implemented will make the teaching learning process more appealing and meaningful for both teachers and students Book jacket Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Why Do I Have to Learn This?
