Reporting to the President

After reading sections one through three of the letter, think about how you would report to the president. How do you think the president would feel about the information that you have gathered and presented?

- 1. How do you think the president would feel about the information that you have gathered and presented? How do you think the president would feel about the information that you have gathered and presented? How do you think the president would feel about the information that you have gathered and presented?

After that is placed in context, all present facts are presented with their own value and perspective to show an idea. A few things appear, however, in a way that is not fully understood and some of them are placed in a way that is not fully understood.
