

'Macbeth' Act 4 Timeline Scene 2

Macduff's wife has been left in Scotland with her _____ children _____ visits her to explain why her husband had fled, but once he leaves, _____, _____ and _____, the whole family

Lady Macduff What should I fly? / I have done no harm, but remember now / I am in this earthly world, where to do harm / is often laudable, to do good sometimes / Accounted dangerous folly, why then, alas, / do I put up that womanly defence, / To say I have done no harm?

Analysis: In these short lines, Lady Macduff realises she is in danger and that she is not safe in her home. She reflects that being a good person isn't enough, in Macbeth's world, being good can in fact be treacherous. She could try to defend herself, explaining she is just a woman- but is not sure that it will be of any use to them that would hurt her. The dramatic irony of this scene, that we know Macbeth does not yet know she is there, is that she is in danger because she is in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Task 1: Create your own timeline for this scene.
