Cyber Attacks United States. Congress, United States House of Representatives, Committee On Foreign Affairs, 2017-12-12
Cyber attacks an unprecedented threat to U S national security hearing before the Subcommittee on Europe Eurasia and Emerging Threats of the Committee on Foreign Affairs House of Representatives One Hundred Thirteenth Congress second session March 21 2013 The Alarming Trend of Cybersecurity Breaches and Failures in the U.S. Government Paul Rosenzweig, Heritage Foundation (Washington, D.C.), 2012 The number of cybersecurity attacks on and breaches within the United States government has been growing The U S Senate is now gearing up to debate cybersecurity legislation and will have to vote on whether the federal government should regulate cybersecurity measures of the private sector as well as those of government The government's track record on cybersecurity does not inspire confidence that it can devise effective cybersecurity regulations for the private sector Cybersecurity for the nation should be a cooperative effort between the private sector and the government with each contributing in its own way Onerous regulations are not the solution to the ever expanding reality of cyberthreats Cybersecurity, Cyberanalysis and Warning United States. Government Accountability Office, 2009 Cyber analysis and warning capabilities are critical to thwarting computer based cyber threats and attacks The Department of Homeland Security DHS established the United States Computer Emergency Readiness Team US CERT to among other things coordinate the nation's efforts to prepare for prevent and respond to cyber threats to systems and communications networks The authors objectives were to 1 identify key attributes of cyber analysis and warning capabilities 2 compare these attributes with US CERT's current capabilities to identify whether there are gaps and 3 identify US CERT's challenges to developing and implementing key attributes and a successful national cyber analysis and warning capability To address these objectives the authors identified and analysed related documents observed operations at numerous entities and interviewed responsible officials and experts Emerging Cyber Threats to the United States Cybersecurity, Infrastructure Protection, and Security Technologies of the Committee on Homeland Security House of Representatives Subcommittee, 2017-05-05 The United States faces evolving cybersecurity threats from nation states such as China Russia North Korea and Iran as well as cyber threats from criminal organizations and terrorist groups such as ISIS These actors continue to develop and build more sophisticated cyber capabilities These hackers now pose an even greater threat to the U S homeland and critical infrastructure Cybersecurity more than ever is National security In 2015 the U S was the victim of one of the most significant cyber attacks in its history The breach at the Office of Personnel Management exposed the personal and security clearance information of 21.5 million current and former Government employees In 2014 North Korea conducted a cyber attack on Sony Pictures that not only destroyed computers but also was intended to stifle free speech and threaten American ideals The Obama administration's lack of proportional responses to these cyber attacks has signaled to the world that there are no real consequences for such actions Without a comprehensive National cybersecurity strategy that establishes deterrence the future could bring an increasing number of adversaries that are willing to conduct cyber attacks against the United States
