The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard, valued, and empowered. It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development, honor all students' voices, and empower them. This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students' home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction. It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom. This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student-centered classroom practices. By encouraging discourse among students, educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices. Literacy Unbound: Multiliterate, Multilingual, Multimodal Toni Dobinson, Katie Dunworth, 2018-12-06 This volume promotes a thought-provoking discussion on contemporary issues surrounding the teaching of language and literacy based on first-hand experiences and research. Drawing on the authors' experiences as teacher-educators, language and literacy teachers, and researchers on literacy issues, it brings together the multiple traditions. What makes the proposed volume unique is the common theme that runs through all the chapters: the examination of the term literacy, the complexity of this term, and the importance of having a wide understanding of what it is before tackling educational issues of pedagogy, assessment, and student engagement. What is more, as the editors argue, it is necessary to join up the dots and explore the commonalities that form the core of the literacy spectrum. A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School Andrew Green, 2012 A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School is an essential companion to the best-selling Learning to Teach English in the Secondary School.
