National Memories Henry L. Roediger III, James V. Wertsch, 2022 This volume brings together distinguished scholars to address broad societal claims about the surge in populist nationalism in the scholarly literature on collective memory Through an examination of conceptual claims and empirical evidence in the collective memory literature this book offers a multidisciplinary modern approach to studying these persistent challenges Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks The New York Times Index, 1928 Bulletin of Bibliography and Magazine Subject-index, 1907 Why Learn History (When It's Already on Your Phone) Sam Wineburg, 2018-09-17 A look at how to teach history in the age of easily accessible but not always reliable information Let's start with two truths about our era that are so inescapable as to have become clichés We are surrounded by more readily available information than ever before And a huge percent of it is inaccurate Some of the bad info is well meaning but ignorant Some of it is deliberately deceptive All of it is pernicious With the Internet at our fingertips what's a teacher of history to do In Why Learn History When It's Already on Your Phone professor Sam Wineburg has the answers beginning with this We can't stick to the same old read the chapter answer the question snoozefest If we want to educate citizens who can separate fact from fake we have to equip them with new tools Historical thinking Wineburg shows has nothing to do with the ability to memorize facts Instead it's an orientation to the world that cultivates reasoned skepticism and counters our tendency to confirm our biases Wineburg lays out a mine filled landscape but one that with care attention and awareness we can learn to navigate The future of the past may rest on our screens But its fate rests in our hands Praise for Why Learn History When It s Already on Your Phone If every K 12 teacher of history and social studies read just three chapters of this book Crazy for History Changing History One Classroom at a Time and Why Google Can t Save Us the ensuing transformation of our populace would save our democracy James W Lowen author of Lies My Teacher Told Me and Teaching What Really Happened A sobering and urgent report from the leading expert on how American history is taught in the nation s schools A bracing edifying and vital book Jill Lepore New Yorker staff writer and author of These Truths Wineburg is a true innovator who has thought more deeply about the relevance of history to the Internet and vice versa than any other scholar I know Anyone interested in the uses and abuses of history today has a duty to read this book Niall Ferguson senior fellow Hoover Institution and author of The Ascent of Money and Civilization Asian/American Curricular Epistemicide Nicholas D. Hartlep, Daniel P. Scott, 2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and Daniel Scott s detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans As Hartlep and Scott write Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even Asian Americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles Linshi 2014 p 1 Social Sciences and Humanities Index ,1916 The Education Index ,1953 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1914 Cumulated Index to the Books ,1915 Lexicon zu Shakespeare's Werken Schmidt,1875 Shakespeare-lexicon Alexander Schmidt,1875 M-Z Alexander Schmidt,1886 M-Z ,1886 Cleveland Plain Dealer Index United States.
