Are Miraculous Gifts For Today:

Are Miraculous Gifts for Today? Zondervan,2011-10-11 Are Miraculous Gifts for Today takes you to the heart of one of the most dividing questions in the Church today how are the Holy Spirit's miracles at work among God's people now Is he still actively giving the gifts of tongues prophecy and healing that fill the book of Acts Is he driving out demons when Christians command them to flee Or are these events confined to the time of the early church and the apostles This volume of the Counterpoints series provides an impartial format for comparing the four main positions on present day miracles including the history and distinctions between the three positions that affirm miraculous gifts with voice also given to a large sector of open but cautious evangelicals Cessationist there are no miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit today Pentecostal gifts are intended for today with certain nuances focused on baptism and speaking in tongues Charismatic gifts are intended for today and should be actively practiced Third Wave gifts are intended for today with greater emphasis on baptism and less on tongues This thought provoking book will help Christians on every side of the miraculous gifts debate to better understand their own position and the positions of others The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Miraculous Gifts Thomas R. Edgar,2001-07-25 Miraculous Gifts is a discussion of spiritual gifts in light of the basic differences between cessationism and Pentecostalism Many studies of this issue are written from a primarily theological perspective and while theological arguments are valid charismatics assert that this controversy concerns biblical gifts and miracles and is therefore a matter of faith to believe their claims with theological arguments proving unsatisfactory The fundamental question is Is this what the Bible discusses is it biblical Miraculous Gifts attempts to answer that question by providing a biblically based analysis of spiritual gifts in view of the charismatic controversy

Are Miraculous Gifts for Today? Wayne Grudem,1996 This thought provoking book presents the four major views of miraculous gifts today and will help Christians on every side of the miraculous gifts debate to better understand their own position and the positions of others

He Who Gives Life Graham A. Cole,2007-08-16 Often the most misunderstood and therefore ignored member of the Trinity the Holy Spirit deserves our attention and understanding God the Father and God the Son rightfully garner much explanation and exploration and God the Holy Spirit ought to be given the same studiousness curiosity and scholarship In this addition to Crossway's Foundations of Evangelical Theology series Dr Graham Cole has written a work that offers a comprehensive theology of the Holy Spirit This book shows the ultimate selflessness of the Holy Spirit as the member of the Trinity who always works for the glory of God the Father and God the Son and the good of the saints Ideal for pastors teachers and students of theology this book is a superb theology of the Holy Spirit Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series

Remarriage after Divorce in Today's Church Zondervan,2009-12-15 Despite a strong belief in the institution and sacredness of marriage studies show that Christian spouses experience divorce at least as much as the secular population. But whatever the reasons for a divorce beyond the divorce itself, many Christians want to know: does the Bible support remarriage? The fact is that no consensus exists among evangelicals on their views of remarriage, leaving many Christians confused. This Counterpoints volume explores the biblical and practical cases for the three main evangelical views on remarriage after divorce: Remarriage is not acceptable after divorce (defended by Gordon J. Wenham); Remarriage is acceptable only after adultery or desertion (defended by William A. Heth); Remarriage is acceptable for a variety of reasons (defended by Craig S. Keener). Each of the three contributors offers his point of view succinctly and with biblical support, and each interacts with the others to help readers come to their own conclusions. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion.

Book 10 Miracles PB Kurt Jurgensmeier, 2012-08-22 How does God supernaturally reveal Himself? This book is a detailed introduction to the complex, controversial but vital topic of miracles. The topic would be difficult enough, but the claims and teaching of charismaticism have made a biblical understanding of miracles even more critical, but also more complicated. In the course of this Bible study, we endeavor to answer such questions as: What is a miracle? How do we avoid the extremes between anti-supernaturalism (which claims there are no miracles) and super-supernaturalism (which claims an abundance of them)? What are the different types of miracles, and why is it critical to distinguish them? What are the myriad of ways that God has miraculously spoken, and which of these can we expect today? What is the biblical place and attributes of dreams and visions? What is the embarrassing history and alarming dangers of the super-supernaturalism at the heart of the charismatic movement?

A Confessing Theology for Postmodern Times Michael Scott Horton, 2000 In a world in which absolute truth values and authority have lost their place the evangelical church needs most of all to be a beacon of truth and light Yet the relativistic mindset of our culture is seeping in pushing aside biblical content to make way for personal experience even in churches that once held firmly to the doctrines of the faith The result a watered down Gospel is having little impact on society or individual lives It is a challenge that must not go unmet In A Confessing Theology for Postmodern Times twelve confessing Christian scholars from various denominational backgrounds provide you with ideas and strategies for rising to that challenge They explore your resources for doing theology in a postmodern world as well as the obstacles and the opportunities it entails There is a crisis of truth in the world This volume is evidence that you can reach out to those who need the life changing message of the Gospel and still hold firm to a systematic biblical theology in postmodern times From book jacket

The Possibility of Salvation Among the Unevangelised Daniel Strange, 2002 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul's metaphorical language of death in Romans 6:1-11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle's own insight into the meaning of Christ's death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer's death to sin by presenting Christ's death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ's death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam's sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment In contrast hope is presented in the context of burial The believer's burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ's family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ's death an act pictured in baptism It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life
