Church Choir Rules and Regulations

This is a set of guidelines and standards that outline the expectations and conduct for members of a church choir. These rules are put in place to create a structured and harmonious environment within the choir, maintain alignment with the church values, and ensure that the choir operates effectively in its mission of enhancing worship services through music.

The rules collective creates a framework for the functioning of the church choir, ensuring that members uphold the choir's mission, maintain a respectful and cooperative atmosphere, and contribute positively to the church's worship and music activities.

Here's a brief explanation of the key elements:

1. Membership registration:

This section outlines the process by which individuals can formally join the church choir. Membership registration is a fundamental step for maintaining a record of the choir member and ensuring that they meet certain criteria

Rules:

- a. All individuals interested in joining the church choir must complete a membership registration form, providing personal information and contact details
- b. Perspective member will be evaluated for their commitment to the choir's mission and their ability to contribute positively to the group
- c. All existing and new members must pay a token fee, as determine by the choir director before being registered as member of the choir

Punishment: NO member will be admitted into the choir except He/she duly completed and sign the registration form

2. Membership requirement

This section defines the expectation and prerequisites for choir membership. It set the standards for who can become and remain a choir member

Rules:

- a. All members must be active, committed members of the church
- b. Members should have a love for singing and a willingness to contribute to the choir's mission
- c. Regular attendance at rehearsals and performance is expected

Punishment:

- a. Membership may be revoked for failure to meet the requirements of the joining the choir
- b. For repeated absences without valid reasons membership may be revoked.

3. Choir leadership

The heading pertains to the individual who lead and guide the choir. It outlines their roles and the expected behavior of choir members towards the leadership.

Rules:

- a. The choir must have a director (Choir Master), and supporting executive like assistant director, secretary, PRO, Treasurer.
