Mega-Urbanization in the Global South Ayona Datta, Abdul Shaban, 2016-11-03 The global south is entering an Urban Age where for the first time in history more people will be living in cities than in the countryside The logics of this prediction have a dominant framing rapid urbanization uncontrolled migration resource depletion severe fuel shortages and the breakdown of law and order We are told that we must be prepared The solution is simple they say Mega urbanization is an opportunity for economic growth and prosperity Therefore we must build big build new and build fast With contributions from an international range of established and emerging scholars drawing upon real world examples Mega Urbanization in the Global South is the first to use the lens of speed to examine the postcolonial urban revolution From the mega urbanization of Lusaka to the production of satellite cities in Jakarta to new cities built from scratch in Masdar Songdo and Rajarhat this book argues that speed is now the persistent feature of a range of utopian visions that seek to expedite the production of new cities These fast cities are the enduring images of postcolonial urbanism which bypass actually existing urbanisms through new power knowledge coalitions of producing knowing and governing the city The book explores three main themes Part I examines fast cities as new urban utopias which propagate the illusion that they are quick fix sustainable solutions to insulate us from future crises Part II discusses the role of the entrepreneurial state that despite its neoliberalisation is playing a key role in shaping mega urbanization through laws policies and brute force Part III finally delves into how fast cities built by entrepreneurial states actually materialise at the scale of regional urbanization rather than as metropolitan growth This book explores the contradictions between intended and unintended outcomes of fast cities and points to their fault lines between state sovereignty capital accumulation and citizenship It concludes with a vision and manifesto for slow and decelerated urbanism This timely and original book presents urban scholars with the theoretical empirical and methodological challenges of mega urbanization in the global south as well as highlighting new theoretical agendas and empirical analyses that these new forms of city making bring to the fore Knowledge Governance in an Industrial Cluster Farah Purwaningrum, 2014 This dissertation explains why there persists a divergence of academia industry government inter linkage in the Indonesian science system This divergence constrains the capacity of the science system in localizing knowledge from the supply chain linkage and demonstrates the centralized character of the Indonesian science system Additionally the book shows that the Jababeka Industrial Cluster is shaped by the supply chain linkage and thus lacks the capacity of a knowledge cluster Therefore horizontal collaboration between academia industry is restricted and limited Dissertation Series ZEF Development Studies Vol 27 Transformative Planning Christopher Silver, Andrea Frank, 2021-11-25 The Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning series offers a selection of some of the best scholarship in urban and regional planning from around the world with internationally recognized authors taking up urgent and salient issues from theory to education for and practice of planning This 7th volume features contributions on the theme of

Transformative Planning Smarter Greener and More Inclusive Practices It includes chapters from leading planning scholars and practitioners who critically examine how transformative planning practices seek to reduce inequalities promote sustained inclusive and sustainable economic growth achieve gender equality improve human health and well being foster resilience of urban communities and protect the environment and thereby change urban planning paradigms Several case studies of emerging transformative planning interventions illustrate practical ways forward Transformative Planning offers provocative insights into the global planning community s struggle and contribution to tackle the major challenges to society in the 21st century It will be of use for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in the wide ranging fields encompassed by urban studies sustainability studies and urban and regional planning The Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning DURP series is published in association with the Global Planning Education Association Network GPEAN and its member national and transnational planning schools associations
