

Financial Supporting Letter

cc: British Embassy
Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the applicant XXX's parents and guarantee for her postgraduate study in UK. We can provide her with all the expenses while she is in UK, including the tuition fee, accommodation fee and daily expenditure.

The fund comes from our extended and steady income and former deposits. XXX, her father, works in XXX as XXX Lee Sha, her mother, was an employee in XXX before retirement. Therefore, we will provide all the required fees for our daughter XXX during her stay in UK.

We have steady income, deposit, and we also have our own house. After we provide RMBXXX, we will have no difficulties in our lives. Also, we guarantee that our daughter XXX will have no economic difficulties in UK and will obey the laws and regulations. We are willing to bear all the responsibility if any problems happen.

Your kind consideration of her application is greatly appreciated. Thanks a lot!

We hereby to guarantee!

Yours sincerely,
XXX's father: 手写签名

Aging in East and West Dr. Vern L. Bengtson, PhD, Kyong-Dong Kim, PhD, George Myers, PhD, Ki-Soo Eun, PhD, 2000-09-20 Widely recognized experts present the first comparative analysis of recent developments among six Eastern and Western nations concerning population aging and its consequences Chapters focus on demographic trends sociocultural contexts and policy implications Nations selected as case studies include the People's Republic of China the Republic of Korea Japan Germany the United Kingdom and the United States The editors and contributors call attention to the varied trajectories and effects of population aging in culturally diverse societies that are often at different stages or on different paths of economic development Such analyses bring into sharper focus those conditions that are unique or similar and emphasize the ways in which cultural stereotypes of aging and the elderly complicate our understanding of the effects of world wide population aging

Caring for Mom and Dad Susan Stein-Roggenbuck, 2023-10-05 Throughout the twentieth century the United States implemented social policies targeting the needs of dependent parents parents who were no longer able to work but lacked sufficient financial resources to support themselves These parent dependency policies either encouraged or required family members particularly adult children to provide support as an alternative to government benefits Debates over how best to support aging parents centered on conceptualizations of dependency and the moral obligations family owed their parents Measures of dependency often inhibited aging Americans access to benefits they needed focusing instead on ensuring that they were in fact dependent and that other family resources were not available Susan Stein Roggenbuck highlights this understudied aspect of the modern US welfare state highlighting the limited support provided to aging parents and the hardship they and their adult children endured in the efforts to minimize public expenditures

The Family in Roman Egypt Sabine R. Huebner, 2013-07-04 This study captures the dynamics of the everyday family life of the common people in Roman Egypt a social strata that constituted the vast majority of any pre modern society but rarely figures in ancient sources or in modern scholarship The documentary papyri and above all the private letters and the census returns provide us with a wealth of information on these people not available for any other region of the ancient Mediterranean The book discusses such things as family composition and household size and the differences between urban and rural families exploring what can be ascribed to cultural patterns economic considerations and or individual preferences by setting the family in Roman Egypt into context with other pre modern societies where families adopted such strategies to deal with similar exigencies of their daily lives

The Branch Exposition of the Bible, Volume

1 Michael A. Eaton, 2020-08-31 If you picture the Bible to be a mighty tree and every word a little branch I have shaken every one of these branches because I wanted to know what it was and what it meant

MARTIN LUTHER A great deal of biblical scholarship is written for academics and fails to edify readers or strengthen their Christian ministry Yet Christians need to be nourished by the word of God so they can mature in faith and righteousness Filling this gap The Branch Exposition of the Bible is a resource for preachers scholars and everyday Christians alike to help open God's word and shed its light into life ministry and teaching Inspired by the words of the great reformer Martin Luther about shaking every branch of Scripture and with experience in ministering across Africa India and the West Michael A Eaton helps us understand the meaning of the Bible and taste its fruit With an Old Testament volume to follow this exposition of the New Testament accessibly engages with the biblical languages gives application for our lives and leads us through each book of the New Testament so that we can meet the resurrected Jesus Christ in the pages of Scripture
