

The main workspace is divided into two primary sections. The upper section is a piano roll, where a purple track is selected. It displays a sequence of notes with stems and heads, along with a MIDI piano roll grid. The lower section is a mixer, showing multiple tracks with faders, knobs, and various processing modules. The interface uses a dark theme with vibrant colors for tracks and controls.

The mixer console section features a series of vertical faders for each track, with a master section on the right. Below the faders, there are numerous knobs and buttons for adjusting parameters like volume, pan, and effects. The bottom of the mixer includes a master section with a large volume knob and other control elements. The overall layout is clean and professional, typical of a modern DAW.
