The Oxford Handbook of Foreign Policy Analysis Juliet Kaarbo, Cameron Theis, 2024-01-17 The Oxford Handbook of Foreign Policy Analysis repositions the subfield of Foreign Policy Analysis FPA to a central analytic location within the study of International Relations IR Over the last twenty years IR has seen a cross theoretical turn toward incorporating domestic politics decision making agency practices and subjectivity the staples of the FPA subfield This turn however is underdeveloped theoretically empirically and methodologically To reconnect FPA and IR research this handbook links FPA to other theoretical traditions in IR takes FPA to a wider range of state and non state actors and connects FPA to significant policy challenges and debates By advancing FPA along these trajectories the handbook directly addresses enduring criticisms of FPA including that it is isolated within IR it is state centric its policy relevance is not always clear and its theoretical foundations and methodological techniques are stale The Oxford Handbook of Foreign Policy Analysis provides an inclusive and forward looking assessment of this subfield Edited and written by a team of world class scholars and with a preface by Margaret Hermann and Stephen Walker the handbook sets the agenda for future research in FPA and in IR The Oxford Handbooks of International Relations is a twelve volume set of reference books offering authoritative and innovative engagements with the principal sub fields of International Relations The series as a whole is under the General Editorship of Christian Reus Smit of the University of Queensland and Duncan Snidal of the University of Oxford with each volume edited by specialists in the field The series both surveys the broad terrain of International Relations scholarship and reshapes it pushing each sub field in challenging new directions Following the example of Reus Smit and Snidal's original Oxford Handbook of International Relations each volume is organized around a strong central thematic by scholars drawn from different perspectives reading its sub field in an entirely new way and pushing scholarship in challenging new directions

The Road to War in Iraq: Comparative Foreign Policy Analysis Chris Featherstone, 2025-04-09 This book combines three Foreign Policy Analysis FPA models to explain both how and why the US and UK decided to invade Iraq in 2003 These three FPA models each examine a different but closely related aspect of the individual level of decision making Firstly Groupthink examines how pathologies of small group decision making affected the processes in the US and UK decision to invade Iraq Secondly the Leadership Style framework examines how the individual leader's style of exercising their leadership affected the navigation of the decision making process Thirdly analogical reasoning examines how decision makers frame their actions both in their own decision making and in how they present their decision to the wider public By achieving these objectives The Road to War contributes to the field of FPA and to our understanding of how the decision to invade Iraq was taken The comparative use of these FPA models within a single framework means that this book responds to the calls for multifactorial research within FPA proposing and testing a framework that provides more complex answers through adopting a multifactorial framework These more nuanced complex answers then reveal more about the role of the individuals involved in the decision to invade Iraq and how their cognition affected the process that led to the decision to invade

Routledge Handbook of Foreign Policy Analysis Methods Patrick A Mello, Falk Ostermann, 2022-12-26 The disintegration and questioning of global governance structures and a reorientation toward national politics combined with the spread of technological innovations such as big data social media and phenomena like fake news populism or questions of global health policies make it necessary for the introduction of new methods of inquiry and the adaptation of established methods in Foreign Policy Analysis FPA This accessible handbook offers concise chapters from expert international contributors covering a diverse range of new and established FPA methods Embracing methodological pluralism and a belief in the value of an open discussion about methods assumptions and diverging positions it provides new state of the art research approaches as well as introductions to a range of established methods Each chapter follows the same approach introducing the method and its development discussing strengths requirements limitations and potential pitfalls while illustrating the method's application using examples from empirical research Embracing methodological pluralism and problem oriented research that engages with real world questions the authors examine quantitative and qualitative traditions rationalist and interpretivist perspectives as well as different substantive backgrounds The book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students in global politics foreign policy and methods related classes across the social sciences Chapters 4 25 and 32 of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Non-Western Global Theories of International Relations Samantha Cooke, 2022-01-28 This book seeks to reposition international relations IR theory by providing insights into non Western concepts and theories By engaging with understandings of power identity the state and the individual from a range of states outside of the Western hemisphere the contributors to this book introduce new methods for understanding aspects of IR in context considerate ways Engagements with Western theories and cases highlight how we need to reposition traditional understandings to allow non Western approaches to IR develop alongside and inform their Western counterparts Moreover the book reinforces the need to move beyond the traditionally used Western centric lenses without removing them completely instead it advocates a harmonisation between them to reduce generalisations across the local state and regional levels

The Role of the Highest Courts of the United States of America and South Africa, and the European Court of Justice in Foreign Affairs Riaan Eksteen, 2019-06-22 This book deals with what the author considers a sorely neglected question namely the role of the judiciary in states foreign policy processes Eksteen argues that the impact of the judiciary on foreign affairs is understudied and that recognition of its role in foreign affairs is now due This makes it a ground breaking scholarly contribution that should first of all prove of value to students scholars researchers and practitioners in the two broad fields of politics and law for the wide scope of issues it covers and the very comprehensive reference lists it contains Secondly professionals working within politics including members of the legislatures of the United States the European Union and South Africa as well as members of the judiciaries there should find this book of benefit A detailed examination has been undertaken of the role of the United States Supreme Court the two high courts in South Africa namely the Constitutional Court and the Supreme Court of Appeal and the European Court of Justice of the European Union in foreign affairs The author substantiates the unmistakable fact that these Courts have become involved in and influence foreign affairs Furthermore that they have not shied away from using their judicial authority when dealing with cases touching on foreign affairs and especially presidential overreach The lack of recognition of the judiciary's role in foreign affairs is still noticeable in Foreign Policy Analysis FPA literature This book concludes that FPA has to accept and give proper recognition to the judiciary and its increasing relevance in foreign affairs Dr Riaan Eksteen is a Former South African Ambassador residing in Namibia from 1968 1973 he served at the South African Embassy in Washington D C between 1976 1994 he subsequently served as Ambassador and Head of Mission at the U N in New York 1976 81 in Namibia 1990 91 at the U N in Geneva 1992
