(Introducing Sociology) (Chapter – 1) (Sociology and Society) (Exercises)

(Class – XI)

Question 1:

Why is the study of the origin and growth of sociology important?

Answer 1:

The study of origin and growth of societies are important in sociology to know several personal and social issues.

- England was the centre of commercial revolution. The understanding of how urbanisation or factory production influenced all modern societies is incredibly important.
- Sociology of India reflects origin and growth of individuals, social institution and their problems.
- Indian history is stuffed with imperialistic invasions. In India there has been an extended past of feudalism, capitalism and colonialization.
- Indian history associated with political, social or cultural domains is written by foreigners and so it's off from truth.
- Basically it's biased. Therefore, Sociology of India is additionally biased. Presently Indian society will be understood in its complexity of tradition which are influenced by Turks, Mongols, Kushan, Afghans and Britishers and therefore the influence of modern world. Indian sociology may be a complex product of its history.

Therefore, the study of the origin and growth of society is vital for sociology.

Question 2:

Discuss the different aspects of the term 'society'. How is it different from your common sense understanding?

Answer 2:

- Society is that the web of social relationship.
- Sociology could be a system of usage and procedures of authority and logistic support of the many groupings and division of control of human behaviour and of liberties.
- This definition of sociology emphasis that main features of society are usage, procedure, authority, mutual aid, group and division and liberties.
- Usage means accepted ways (norms) of the society.
- Procedure refers to social institutions like family or marriage which is very important for social network.
- Authority means a system which controls the units of society (Individual) or maintains social web. Groups and division mean groups and subgroups during which the individual interacts and learn social norms.
- Control of human behaviour refers to group action and freedom to the individuals within the type of written or unwritten norms which are important for smooth functioning of social network.
- Above mentioned elements are different aspects of society and web of social relationship.
