the theme of love from a very different perspective Most of the reviews received by the author were highly positive However there were a few negative reviews According to Publishers Weekly Hard Love is somewhat overdramatized However it admires the themes that the author has so beautifully explored Most of the reviewers are unanimous that the majority of the book's teenage readers will readily identify themselves with the themes such as awkwardness of awakening sexuality and crossing the line of friendship There is no doubt that the author has been able to reach the young readers and give them a lot of food for thought
