The McDonaldization of Higher Education Dennis Hayes, Robin Wynyard, 2002-08-30 Where not so long ago professors owned the tools of scholarship controlled the labor process and certified the quality of our product the process of McDonaldization has torn this relation asunder Rapidly increasing student faculty ratios mass classes and the use of low wage teaching assistants and adjunct faculty have changed the job of professor pp 64 ff Faculty are pressured to recruit and retain students seen as customers p 67 and to compete with private for profit End Page 368 universities pp 71 72 With declining government aid for higher education students increasingly see education as a form of consumption and demand control choice and edutainment p 64 and elsewhere This is seen most obviously in course evaluations which some of the authors refer to as customer satisfaction surveys pp 36 132 147 At the same time faculty are relentlessly pushed to publish engage in funded research and develop new technological competencies Control over product is threatened as universities make demands on ownership of intellectual property including patents and licenses publications and courseware pp 79 81 From the perspective of faculty McDonaldization represents a dramatic loss of pedagogical authority Simultaneously the state which still pays for much of the cost of education as a public good is increasing demands for accountability and standards This takes the form of schemes for standardizing promotion and tenure quantifying and measuring the product being delivered and attempting to assure quality

Globalization, Imperialism, Social Development Yi-Lee Wong, 2008 There are two major aims for this book first to make a contribution to the academic debates and second to urge frontline INGO practitioners to reflect critically on their practices Referring to the practices of

CEP in reforming the system of higher education in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova this book seeks to engage in two major debates one over the role of INGO in social development and two over the relationship between INGO and Imperialism In the discussion the author highlighted the elements that are usually overlooked in the existing literature namely contradiction and contingency Data is in the form of my first hand experience of working as a university lecturer teaching in several universities in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova and as a CEP visiting fellow actively involved in its activities The data poses challenges to the development logic of INGO and the logic of Imperialism this provides an interesting basis for a provocative discussion Since data also offers an interesting evaluation of CEP they reveal not only difficulties facing CEP in bringing changes to the former Soviet countries but also common problems of the system of higher education in this region Seeing Ourselves John J. Macionis, Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis, 2004 This best selling collection is the only reader that systematically weaves together three types of articles classic contemporary and cross cultural for each general topic typically covered in a sociology course Seeing Ourselves conveys sociology's diversity of viewpoints and methodologies and includes important issues and debates that capture the fascinating complexity of the social world Renegade Kids, Suburban Outlaws Wayne S. Wooden, Randy Blazak, 2001 Topics covered include exploring boundary between deviance and criminality in the lives of young people who are deeply involved in the youth culture show how youth culture is not a set of categories so much as it is a dynamic and creative response to the confusions of growing up in modern society
