

Basics of Marketing Explained

Marketing is the process of identifying, anticipating, and satisfying customer needs and wants through the creation, promotion, and distribution of products and services. It involves the coordination of various functions such as market research, product development, pricing, promotion, and distribution. The goal of marketing is to understand the target market and develop strategies to effectively reach and persuade them to a product or service.

Marketing also involves creating a brand and maintaining a strong brand image. A company's brand is its reputation and the way it is perceived by the public. Building a strong brand can help a company differentiate itself from its competitors and create a loyal customer base.
