Constituting Our Constitution Constituting Ourselves:

Max Scheler in Dialogue Susan Gottlöber, 2022-05-18 This volume explores Max Scheler's role within the philosophical and sociological debates of his time into the 21st century. Scheler was an interpreter, a transmitter of and respondent to the philosophical and sociological tradition. He was an interlocutor for his contemporaries and an inspiration for subsequent and current debates in philosophy, psychology, and political thought. Both young and established scholars shed light on central and less investigated aspects of Scheler's thought such as the question of moral facts, personal individuality, cosmopolitanism, and opportunities for intercultural understanding. The contributors delve into Scheler's influence on thinkers such as Tischner or Løgstrup as well as his role as a key figure within Catholic thought. The book appeals to students and researchers while exploring how engaging with Scheler can benefit contemporary debates on embodiment, psychopathology, and value pluralism.

School Choice Alan Wolfe, 2009-02-09 School choice has lately risen to the top of the list of potential solutions to America's educational problems, particularly for the poor and the most disadvantaged members of society. Indeed, in the last few years, several states have held referendums on the use of vouchers in private and parochial schools, and more recently the Supreme Court reviewed the constitutionality of a scholarship program that uses vouchers issued to parents. While there has been much debate over the empirical and methodological aspects of school choice policies, discussions related to the effects such policies may have on the nation's moral economy and civil society have been few and far between. School Choice, a collection of essays by leading philosophers, historians, legal scholars, and theologians, redresses this situation by addressing the moral and normative side of school choice. The twelve essays, commissioned for a conference on school choice that took place at Boston College in 2001, are organized into four sections that consider the relationship of school choice to equality, moral pluralism, institutional ecology, and constitutionality. Each section consists of three essays followed by a critical response. The contributors are Patrick McKinley Brennan, Charles L. Glenn, Amy Gutmann, David Hollenbach, S. J. Meira Levinson, Sanford Levinson, Stephen Macedo, John T. McGreevy, Martha Minow, Richard J. Mouw, Joseph O. Keefe, S. J. Michael J. Perry, Nancy L. Rosenblum, Rosemary C. Salomone, Joseph P. Viteritti, Paul J. Weithman, and Alan Wolfe. A Companion to

Comprises a comprehensive collection of authors and topics with both established and emerging scholars represented. Includes chapters that survey Foucault's major works and others that approach his work from a range of thematic angles. Engages extensively with Foucault's recently published lecture courses from the Collège de France. Contains the first translation of the extensive Chronology of Foucault's life and works written by Foucault's life partner Daniel Defert. Includes a bibliography of Foucault's shorter works in English, cross-referenced to the standard French edition Dits et écrits. On the Problem of Human Dignity Mette Lebeck, 2009 *Proceedings of the ...
