An Introduction To Quranic Studies Of Orientalists With An:

Contemporary Approaches to the Qur'an and its Interpretation in Iran Ali Akbar, Abdullah Saeed, 2019-10-24 This book sets out how contemporary Iranian scholars have approached the Qur'an during recent decades. It particularly aims to explore the contributions of scholars that have emerged in the post 1979 revolution era, outlining their primary interpretive methods and foundational theories regarding the reading of the Qur'an. Examining issues such as the status of women, democracy, freedom of religion, and human rights, this book analyses the theoretical contributions of several Iranian scholars, some of which are new to the English speaking academy. The hermeneutical approaches of figures such as Abdolkarim Soroush, Muhammad Mojtahed Shabestari, Mohsen Kadivar, Hasan Yousefi Eshkevari, Abolqasem Fanaie, and Mostafa Malekian are presented and then analysed to demonstrate how a contextualist approach to the Qur'an has been formed in response to the influence of Western Orientalism. The effect of this approach to the Qur'an is then shown to have wide ranging effects on Iranian society. This study reveals Qur'anic thought that has been largely overlooked by the West. It will therefore be of great use to academics in Religious, Islamic, and Qur'anic studies, as well as those studying the culture of Iran and the Middle East more generally.

Tafsir (Qur'anic Exegesis) Gholamali Haddad Adel, Mohammad Jafar Elmi, Hassan Taromi-Rad, 2012-08-31 Generation after generation of Muslim scholars have endeavoured to uncover the implications of the Qur'anic text through the science of Qur'anic exegesis (tafsir). This book traces the development of Qur'anic exegesis from its formative period in the first century hijri until the modern era. It offers a comprehensive discussion of the primary approaches to Qur'anic exegesis, namely exegesis by traditions, literary exegesis, jurisprudential exegesis, theological exegesis, mystical exegesis, scientific exegesis, modern exegesis, and orientalist exegesis. It also discusses the requirements for an exegete and approaches to exegesis which are considered unacceptable, such as exegesis by personal opinion. This book is part of a series of translations from the Encyclopaedia of the World of Islam (EWI) which was originally compiled in Persian. Other entries from this encyclopaedia which are available in English include Hadith, Hawza, 'Ilmiyya, History and Historiography, Muslim Organisations, Political Parties, Qur'anic Exegeses, and Sufism.

Qur'anic Studies Mehdi Azaiez, Mokdad Arfa-Mensia, 2023-09-18 Over the last twenty years, the rise of Qur'anic studies has been one of the most remarkable developments within the wider framework of Islamic scholarship. This evolution can be viewed from three angles: exponential growth in the accessibility of relevant primary texts; the use of contemporary methods for developing new analytical agendas; a renewed appreciation of diverse hermeneutical orientations. A veritable gold rush of publications, theses, colloquia, and study projects devoted to the Qur'an in the past two decades illustrates these developments. This scholarly community subsists primarily in European countries and the United States, but its effects are not limited there. The reception and dissemination of this work in Muslim majority countries is constant and bodes as a promising opportunity to establish a real dialogue between scholars and lived community. The present book contains expert contributions emerging from this nexus with scholars from
