

Conflict resolution case studies

Case Study 1: Roommate Conflict (Personal Conflict)

Ayesha and Sana are university roommates. Ayesha is a morning person and prefers to sleep early, while Sana stays up late watching Netflix. Ayesha has an 8 AM psychology class and has been losing sleep because of Sana's late-night noise. They have had multiple arguments, but Sana insists she needs time to relax. Their friendship is starting to suffer.

Questions:

1. What type of conflict is this?
 2. What are the main concerns of both parties?
 3. If you were Ayesha, how would you communicate your concerns effectively?
 4. How can Sana accommodate Ayesha's concerns without feeling restricted?
 5. What conflict resolution strategies could help them find a win-win solution?

Case Study 2: Miscommunication in a Workplace Team (Workplace Conflict)

Ali is working on a group project for his internship at a research center. His team leader, Bilal, gives instructions through emails, but Ali prefers face-to-face discussions. Due to miscommunication, Ali submitted an incomplete report, and Bilal was frustrated. Instead of discussing the issue, Bilal publicly criticized Ali during a team meeting. Ali feels embarrassed and is now avoiding work.

Questions:

1. What went wrong in this situation?
 2. What type of conflict is this?
 3. What could Bilal have done differently as a leader?
 4. If you were Ali, how would you address the situation?
 5. What strategies could help improve communication in workplace teams?

Case Study 3: Family Business Dispute (Interpersonal & Financial Conflict)

A father and son run a small business together. The son wants to modernize the business by launching an online store, but the father believes their traditional methods have worked fine for decades. Their disagreements have become heated, and now they barely speak to each other at work.

Questions:

1. What type of conflict is this?
 2. Why might the father resist change? Why might the son be frustrated?
 3. How could they communicate their perspectives without damaging their relationship?
 4. What negotiation techniques could they use to reach a compromise?
 5. What would be the benefits of listening to each other's perspectives?

Workplace Conflict Resolution Case Studies:

Case Studies in Project, Program, and Organizational Project Management Dragan Z. Milosevic, Peerasit Patanakul, Sabin Srivannaboon, 2010-04-19 The ever expanding market need for information on how to apply project management principles and the PMBOK contents to day to day business situations has been met by our case studies book by Harold Kerzner That book was a spin off from and ancillary to his best selling text but has gained a life of its own beyond adopters of that textbook All indications are that the market is hungry for more cases while our own need to expand the content we control both in print and online would benefit from such an expansion of project management case content The authors propose to produce a book of cases that compliment Kerzner s book A book that offers cases beyond the general project management areas and into PMI s growth areas of program management and organizational project management The book will be structured to follow the PMBOK in coverage so that it can not only be used to supplement project management courses but also for self study and training courses for the PMP Exam PMI PMBOK PMP and Project Management Professional are registered marks of the Project Management Institute Inc

Managing Workplace Conflict Bernadine Van Gramberg, 2006 Managing Workplace Conflict critically analyses Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR in Australian workplaces It includes coverage of various ADR techniques and the roles played by ADR practitioners in workplace conflict the need for workplace grievance policies and the forms these can take the suitability of ADR for various types of disputes the effects of the Work Choices Act 2005 Cth on dispute resolution and three case studies where ADR was utilised in workplace conflict and the experiences of both the human resource consultant and their clients Managing Workplace Conflict is written against the background of a rapidly changing Australian labour market It argues that ADR in the Australian workplace needs to be conducted with an understanding of the changed industrial relations environment and the power differences between key workplace stakeholders as well as commitment to ethical practice and workplace justice It presents the key concepts central to the practice of ADR in Australia and provides a practical useable reference book for both the professional and the student back cover
