Developmentally Appropriate Practice, 1997 Developmentally Appropriate Practice in Early Childhood Programs Bredekamp, 1988 Developmentally Appropriate Practice Carol Gestwicki, 2007 Examines the concepts of developmentally appropriate practice as they relate to the education of children from birth to age eight discusses appropriate physical social emotional and cognitive language literacy environments for specific age groups and explores the process of making changes for teachers Developmentally Appropriate Practice in School-age Child Care Programs Kay M. Albrecht, Margaret C. Plantz, 1991 This is a companion document to Quality criteria for school age child care programs This document identifies principles and components of programming that reflects the characteristics and needs of school age children Developmentally Appropriate Practice Carol Gestwicki, 2012-11-02 Designed to meet the needs of new early childhood students as well as experienced teachers professionals and parents this text provides an overview of the concepts and theoretical foundations of appropriate practices in every developmental domain and discusses the practical implications for teachers and caregivers Developmentally Appropriate Practice In Early Childhood Programs C.; & Bredekamp Copple (S.), 2009 Developmentally Appropriate Practice Carol Copple, Sue Bredekamp, Derry Gosselin Koralek, Kathy Charner, 2014 Filled with information and inspiration for applying DAP in your work with children in grades 1-3 Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum in Action Marjorie J. Kostelnik, Anne Soderman, Michelle Rupiper, Alice Whiren, 2013-04-29 Written for courses in Curriculum in Early Childhood Education and Methods for Teaching Young Children in Preschool and Kindergarten A comprehensive overview of all the components necessary to run an effective early childhood program as a teacher this concise new text is keenly focused on application and skill building utilizing several areas of child development aesthetic affective cognitive language physical and social as the basis for curriculum planning Neither a subject based nor a materials based curriculum this directly applicable text instead promotes several areas of child development and incorporates subject matter areas art math literacy and science into the developmental domains rather than focusing on the subjects themselves The authors present six activity types exploratory play guided discovery problem solving discussions demonstrations and direct instruction in every domain Furthermore they provide long form lesson plans and short form plans that illustrate these activity types in all of the curriculum chapters Closely aligned to the current developmentally appropriate practice DAP guidelines the text effectively prepares pre service teachers for the Praxis II exam if it is required in their state Promoting the teacher as an active participant in education is another important characteristic of the text with a detailed discussion of the importance of being intentional in one s teaching and what this looks like in a true classroom environment The authors support this ideology by explaining and showing how a teacher becomes more active one ready to make continual judgments about what to plan how to build on children s interests and knowledge and how to interact with children to scaffold their learning Strongly methods based in its approach the text also imparts the how to of teaching with a plethora of examples as to what is appropriate to teach children ages three to six years of age
