Dialectic Of Enlightenment Verso Classics:

Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer, Theodor Adorno, 2016-09-06 Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer are the leading figures of the Frankfurt School and this book is their magnum opus Dialectic of Enlightenment is one of the most celebrated works of modern social philosophy that continues to impress in its wide ranging ambition Writing just after the Second World War and reflecting on the bureaucracy and myths of National Socialism and the inanity of the dawn of consumerism Adorno and Horkheimer addressed themselves to a question which went to the very heart of the modern age why mankind instead of entering into a truly human condition is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Modernity far from redeeming the promises and hopes of the Enlightenment had resulted in a stultification of mankind and administered society characterised by simulation and candy floss entertainment Tracing humanity's modern fall to the very rationality that was to be its liberation the authors exposed the domination and violence that underpin the Enlightenment project

Hegelian-Lacanian Variations on Late Modernity Alireza Taheri, 2020-12-29 The current rise in new religions and the growing popularity of New Ageism is concomitant with an increasingly anti philosophical sentiment marking our contemporary situation More specifically it is philosophical and psychoanalytic reason that has lost standing faced with the triumph of post secular spirituality Combatting this trend this treatise develops a theoretical apparatus based on Hegelian speculative reason and Lacanian psychoanalysis With the aid of this theoretical apparatus the book argues how certain conceptual pairs appear opposed through an operation of misrecognition christened following Hegel as diremption The failure to reckon with identities in difference relegates the subject to more vicious contradictions that define central aspects of our contemporary predicament The repeated thesis of the treatise is that the deadlocks marking our contemporary situation require renewed engagement with dialectical thinking beyond the impasses of common understanding Only by embarking on this philosophical psychoanalytic path of despair Hegel will we stand a chance of achieving joyful wisdom Nietzsche Developing a unique dialectical theory based on readings of Hegel Lacan and Žižek in order to address various philosophical and psychoanalytic questions this book will be of great interest to anyone interested in German idealism and or psychoanalytic theory

Critical theory and dystopia Patricia McManus, 2022-06-21 Critical theory and dystopia offers a uniquely rich study of dystopian fiction drawing on the insights of critical theory Asking what ideological work these dark imaginings perform the book reconstructs the historical emergence consolidation and transformation of the genre across the twentieth century and into our own ranging from Yevgeny Zamiatin's We 1924 and Aldous Huxley's Brave New World 1932 to Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange 1963 and Suzanne Collins's Hunger Games series 2000s and 2010s In doing so it reveals the political logics opened up or neutered by the successive moments of this dystopian history

Theological Anthropology in the Anthropocene Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2022-12-14 The Anthropocene presents theology and especially theological anthropology with unprecedented challenges There are no immediately available resources in the theological tradition that reflect directly on such experiences Accordingly the situation calls for contextually based theological reflection of what it means to be human under such circumstances This book discusses the main elements in theological anthropology in light of the fundamental points a that theological anthropology needs to be articulated with reference to and informed by the concrete historical circumstances in which humanity presently finds itself and b that the notion of the Anthropocene can be used as a heuristic tool to describe important traits and conditions that call for a response by humanity and which entail the need for a renewal of what a Christian self understanding means Jan Olav Henriksen explores what such a response entails from the point of view of contemporary theological anthropology and discusses selected topics that can contribute to a contextually based position Climate Change and the Symbol Deficit in the Christian Tradition Jan-Olav Henriksen,2022-02-24 Exploring how the climate crisis discloses the symbol deficit in the Christian tradition this book argues that Christianity is rich in symbols that identify and address the failures of humans and the obstacles that prevent humans from doing well while positive symbols that can engage people in constructive action seem underdeveloped Henriksen examines the potential of the Christian tradition to develop symbols that can engage peoples in committed and sustained action to prevent further crisis To do so he argues that we need symbols that engage both intellectually and emotionally and which enhance our perception of belonging in relationships with other humans be it both in the present and in the future According to Henriksen the deficit can only be obliterated if we can develop symbols that have some root or resonance in the Christian tradition provide concrete and specified guidance of agency engage people both emotionally and intellectually and finally open up to visions for a moral agency that provide positive motivations for caring about environmental conditions as a whole Citizenship, Democracies, and Media Engagement among Emerging Economies and Marginalized Communities Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi,2017-09-18 This volume analyzes the contexts in which emerging economies in Africa the Caribbean Central and South America the Middle East and Asia can chart their socioeconomic futures through progressive democratic practices and media engagement Using political and development communication along with case studies from selected countries in these regions the volume addresses human rights policies diplomatic practices democratization good governance identity politics terrorism collective action gendered crimes political psychology and citizen journalism as paradigms for sustainable growth Through practical experiences and field research in the selected countries scholars show how personal and national freedoms as well as business deals have been negotiated in a bid to create a new socioeconomic culture within the nations Shipwreck and Island Motifs in Literature and the Arts Brigitte Le Juez,Olga Springer,2015 The motifs of island and shipwreck have been present in literature and the arts from ancient times The essays in this volume explore shipwreck and island figures together in literary texts films Reality TV music and art Diagnoses of Our Time John A.
