Judicial Self-Governance in the New Millennium Tim Bunjevac, 2021-01-29 This book is a comparative study of judge managed court systems across Australia Europe and North America This book makes an original contribution to the literature of court administration by providing a framework for examining court service models of judicial councils the policymaking bodies of courts and tribunals This book promises to assist court administration scholars judicial leaders and policymakers in devising more effective organizational solutions to the contemporary challenges of judicial self governance The author Dr Tim Bunjevac offers a nuanced elaboration of judicial accountability in court administration and a model institutional framework of court governance comparing key Australian and international models of court administration including the Australian Federal and two state court systems Irish English Canadian and Dutch models With a close case study the author puts his sharpest focus on the Victoria Australia which introduced a judicial council in 2014 This book does an innovative job of proposing a new elaboration of judicial accountability in court administration This book proposes that the likely success of any court system reform ultimately depends on the quality of the interaction between the courts government and other justice system stakeholders which must be rooted in the concepts of organizational transparency and administrative accountability

Mythic Thinking in Twentieth-Century Britain M. Sterenberg, 2016-06-01 A variety of thinkers used the concept of myth to articulate their anxieties about modernity By telling the story of mythic thinking in Britain from its origins in Victorian social anthropology to its postwar cultural mainstreaming this book reveals a yearning for transcendence in an age long assumed to be disenchanting

Florence and Its Church in the Age of Dante George W. Dameron, 2013-05-27 By the early fourteenth century the city of Florence had emerged as an economic power in Tuscany surpassing even Siena which had previously been the banking center of the region In the space of fifty years during the lifetime of Dante Alighieri 1265 1321 Florence had transformed itself from a political and economic backwater scarcely keeping pace with its Tuscan neighbors to one of the richest and most influential places on the continent While many historians have focused on the role of the city's bankers and merchants in achieving these rapid transformations in Florence and Its Church in the Age of Dante George W Dameron emphasizes the place of ecclesiastical institutions communities and religious traditions While by no means the only factors to explain Florentine ascension no account of this period is complete without considering the contributions of the institutional church In Florence economic realities and spiritual yearnings intersected in mysterious ways A busy grain market on a site where a church once stood for instance remained a sacred place where many gathered to sing and pray before a painted image of the Virgin Mary as well as to conduct business At the same time religious communities contributed directly to the economic development of the diocese in the areas of food production fiscal affairs and urban development while they also provided institutional leadership and spiritual guidance during a time of profound uncertainty Addressing such issues as systems of patronage and jurisdictional rights Dameron portrays the working of the rural and urban church in all of its complexity Florence and Its Church in the Age of Dante fills a major gap in scholarship and will be of particular interest to medievalists church historians and Italianists

Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco,Jack Soutanian,2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum s holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher s description
