

BARTER SYSTEM

The barter system represents one of the earliest forms of economic exchange, providing valuable insights into the social and economic structures of early human societies. Before the advent of monetary systems, bartering – the direct exchange of goods or services without the use of currency – was the norm.

Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons The Entrepreneurial Linguist Judy A. Jenner, Dagmar V. Jenner, 2010 Any linguist can become an entrepreneurial linguist work with direct clients and make a good living while maintaining a healthy work life balance This book by longtime translating twins Judy and Dagmar Jenner will teach you how to start your entrepreneurial linguist journey Written in a purposely non academic style The Entrepreneurial Linguist The Business School Approach to Freelance Translation will show you how to market your services to direct clients build and nurture relationships grow your client base in a structured way use web 2 0 to promote your services and much more This book is intended for both beginning and established translators and interpreters around the world The Material Image Brigitte Peucker, 2007 Focusing on intermediality The Material Image situates film within questions of representation familiar from the other arts What is meant by figuring the real How is the real suggested by visual metaphors and what is its relation to illusion How is the spectator figured as entering the text and how does the image enter our world The film s spectator is integral to these concerns Cognitive and phenomenological approaches to perception alike claim that spectatorial affect is real even when it is film that produces it Central to the staging of intermediality in film tableaux moments in film also figure prominently in the book Films by Scorsese Greenaway Wenders and Kubrick are seen to address painterly photographic and digital images in relation to effects of the real Hitchcock s films are examined with regard to modernist and realist effects in painting Chapters on Fassbinder and Haneke analyze the significance of tableau for the body in pain while a final chapter on horror film explores the literalism of psychopathic tableau Here too art and the body images and the real are juxtaposed and entwined in a set of relations
