Broken Homes: A Study of Family Desertion and its Social Treatment Joanna C. Colcord, 2019-12-17 In Broken Homes A Study of Family Desertion and its Social Treatment Joanna C Colcord provides a compelling sociological analysis of the phenomenon of family desertion in early 20th century America Adopting a meticulous and systematic literary style Colcord draws upon extensive empirical research presenting case studies that illustrate the psychological and social complexities surrounding family disintegration The book critically engages with contemporary sociological theories and social reform movements situating family desertion within broader societal issues such as economic instability and changing gender roles thereby deepening the understanding of familial relationships in a rapidly modernizing world Joanna C Colcord a prominent social reformer and author was heavily influenced by her academic training and her experiences working in social welfare Her personal commitment to improving the social fabric of the time fueled her desire to explore the implications of family desertion an issue she perceived as a fundamental disruption of social stability Colcord s background in sociology and her advocacy for women s and children s rights significantly shaped her perspective making this study both timely and significant in understanding the complexities of familial bonds For scholars social workers and anyone interested in the social dynamics of family structures Broken Homes serves as an essential study that not only catalogs the challenges of familial separation but also advocates for compassionate social interventions Colcord s incisive findings remain relevant today inviting readers to reflect on the enduring impact of family dynamics across generations

Broken Homes Joanna C. Colcord, 2015-08-05 Excerpt from Broken Homes A Study of Family Desertion and Its Social Treatment No Less thoughtful a critic of men and manners than Joseph Conrad has remarked recently that a universal experience is exactly the sort of thing which is most difficult to appraise justly in the individual instance The saying might have been made the motto of this book for in its pages Miss Colcord with all the eagerness of the newer school of social workers bent upon understanding upon making allowances seeks that just appraisal to which Conrad refers Marital infelicities and broken homes are not universal fortunately but some of the human weaknesses which lead to them are very nearly so To one who brings a long perspective to any theme in social work Broken Homes suggests the successive stages through which the art of social case work has progressed Twenty years ago the editor of this Series was responsible for the following sentences in an annual report One of our most difficult problems has been how to deal with deserted wives with children One good woman whose husband had left her for the second time more than a year ago declared often and emphatically that she would never let him come back About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Task Force Report: Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Crime United States. Task Force on Juvenile Delinquency, 1967 A socio economic analysis of juvenile delinquency that is critical of society's approach to juvenile crime responds with recommendations and principles for change Efforts to modernize the juvenile court system and the general attitude of the public sector toward youth crime are discussed To teach the youthful offenders involvement in community life the public and private sectors of the population must respond to youthful needs Emphasis is placed on the following areas for changes in attitude and approach of responsible individuals public officials community and social agencies teachers and potential employers Greatest emphasis is placed on juvenile justice system personnel ranging from the police to the judge The Gault decision is discussed as a viable vehicle for giving perspective to future programs and priorities That a revitalized juvenile court system is needed is a logical conclusion

Broken Homes & Gardens Rebecca Kelley, 2015 After returning from an unsuccessful work abroad scenario teaching English in the Czech Republic Joanna puts down roots in the damp drizzly neighborhoods of Portland Oregon Jetlagged and disappointed she sets up camp in her sister Laura's tiny laundry room Weeks later Joanna attends a house party at Ted's Laura's new beau While reading What to Expect When You are Expecting even though becoming pregnant is the farthest thing from Joanna's mind Joanna is caught by surprise when Ted's best friend Malcolm out of nowhere approaches her Lanky dark eyed and strangely weird

Malcolm banter with Joanna intriguing her with his dry unconventional approach to flattery Later that evening they fall asleep in each other's arms in a self-fashioned shed that Malcolm made with his own hands Only one slight problem in less than 24 hours Malcolm is leaving for the Peace Corps
