Political Action Groups

What is a political action group?

A political action group is a group of people who get together to help a candidate win an election. They can do this by raising money, organizing volunteers, and doing other things to help the candidate win.

Political action groups can be very powerful. They can help a candidate win an election, and they can also help a candidate lose an election. This is because they can raise a lot of money and get a lot of people to vote for a candidate.
