Wolf,1990-12 Wildlife Ecology and Management Eric G. Bolen,William Laughlin Robinson,1995 Featuring comprehensive coverage this third edition continues to expose students to the ecological principles practices and prescriptions used to restore and manage wildlife and related natural resources Throughout the text current wildlife management issues as well as related resource and other environmental issues are discussed at length Digital Asset Ecosystems Tobias Blanke,2014-07-07 Digital asset management is undergoing a fundamental transformation Near universal availability of high quality web based assets makes it important to pay attention to the new world of digital ecosystems and what it means for managing using and publishing digital assets The Ecosystem of Digital Assets reflects on these developments and what the emerging web of things could mean for digital assets The book is structured into three parts each covering an important aspect of digital assets Part one introduces the emerging ecosystems of digital assets Part two examines digital asset management in a networked environment The third part covers media ecosystems Looks to the future of digital asset management focussing on the next generation web Includes up to date developments in the field crowd sourcing and cloud services Details case studies to demonstrate how generic requirements are met in particular cases

Microbial Communities in a Forest-terrestrial Ecosystem I. M. Szabó,1974 Resilience in Energy, Infrastructure, and Natural Resources Law Catherine Banet,Hanri Mostert,LeRoy Paddock,Milton Fernando Montoya,Iñigo del Guayo,2022-03-11 The number of severe and sometimes catastrophic disruptive events has been rapidly increasing Extreme weather events including floods wildfires hurricanes and other natural disasters have become both more frequent and more severe whilst events such as the COVID 19 pandemic represent a global threat to public health with huge economic effects that recovery packages tried to address These disruptive events alone and in combination have dramatic consequences on nature human life and the economy calling for urgent action to mitigate their causes and adapt to their impacts In response to discourses of collapsology and end of growth theories this monograph offers an analytical approach to developing legal responses that can help ensure the needs of present and future generations can be met through energy systems infrastructure development and natural resources management in these times of disruption Resilience is therefore seen as a common framework for the interpretation and development of energy infrastructure and natural resources law With a mix of thematic chapters and case studies from multiple jurisdictions Resilience in Energy Infrastructure and Natural Resources Law maps and assesses legal responses to disruptive nature based events and examines possible legal pathways for more sustainable outcomes based on its engagement with this concept of resilience and social ecological thinking Nature-First Cities Cam Brewer,Herb Hammond,Sean Markey,2024-09-03 Nature belongs in cities but how do we put nature first without pushing people aside Nature First Cities reveals the false dichotomy of that question by recognizing that people and nature are indivisible Western urbanization has meant the ongoing expulsion of nature which is engendering biodiversity loss and inequality thwarting economic potential and affecting health This volume instead applies the science and practice of nature directed stewardship to cities Tested through case studies this methodology for urban ecosystem restoration is uniquely effective at revitalizing our strained cities Nature is woven into networks distributed equitably across neighbourhoods and partnered with the urban density that is essential for addressing the climate crisis Nature First Cities offers a practical framework for urban planning that reinforces our place in nature both physically by ensuring that cities are replete with biodiversity and intact ecosystems and conceptually by rebalancing our relationships with the planet and with one another
