Language Maintenance And Language Shift Among Second:

Language Maintenance and Shift Anne Pauwels, 2016-08-04 What motivates some linguistic minorities to maintain their language Why do others shift away from it rather quickly Are there specific conditions environmental or personal influencing these dynamics What can families and communities do to pass on their threatened language to the next generation These and related questions are investigated in detail in Language Maintenance and Shift In this fascinating book Anne Pauwels analyses the patterns of language use exhibited by individuals and groups living in multilingual societies and explores their efforts to maintain their heritage or minority language She explores the various methods used to analyse language maintenance from linguistic demography to linguistic biography and offers guidance on how to research the language patterns and practices of linguistic minorities around the world Hmong-related Works, 1996-2006 Mark Edward Pfeifer, 2007 The Hmong one of the fastest growing ethnic origin populations in the United States has should be interesting for students scholars service professionals and the general public This bibliography is fully annotated and includes full reference information and descriptive summaries for 610 Hmong related works Language Maintenance and Language Shift Among the Chinese on Taiwan Russell Young, 1989 Language Maintenance Or Shift? Nelly Kostoulas-Makrakis, 1995 Building Communities and Making Connections Susana Rivera-Mills, Juan Antonio Trujillo, 2010-02-19 Building Communities and Making Connections explores areas of academic and community engagement through various studies that include community service learning and the development and implementation of university programs that contain a community dimension Academic endeavors have long been seen as separate from the realities of local and regional communities This book closes the gap by looking at ways in which both academia and the communities it serves can collaborate to create authentic and applied learning environments Bilingualism through Schooling Arnulfo G. Ramirez, 1985-01-01 Bilingualism Through Schooling is a comprehensive survey of bilingual education It shows how bilingual schooling can have a double impact by providing students with functional second language competence and also contributing to their deeper understanding of culture and history Concerned with both ethnolinguistic minority children and majority English speaking pupils the book approaches bilingualism from a variety of perspectives linguistic psychological and socio cultural Among the many topics discussed are goals and consequences of bilingualism sociolinguistic contexts language attitudes and proficiency assessment Ramirez explores the various types of programs and techniques used to facilitate second language acquisition and also provides guidelines for the preparation and certification of bilingual instructors Bibliographies are included International Migration in Asia Trends and Policies OECD, 2002-02-01 This publication presents the current migration policy debates in Asia which are largely influenced by recent macroeconomic and labour market developments in the region Community Languages Michael G. Clyne, 1991 Without even considering the 150 Aboriginal languages still spoken Australia has an unparalleled mix of languages other than English in common usage languages often described by the term community Drawing on census data and other statistics this book addresses the current situation of community languages in Australia analysing which are spoken by whom and whereabouts It focuses on three main issues how languages other than English are maintained in an English speaking environment how the structure of the languages themselves changes over time and how the government has responded to such ethnolinguistic diversity At a time of unprecedented awareness of these languages within society and a realisation of the importance of multilingualism in business this book makes a significant contribution to understanding the role of community languages in shaping the future of Australian society Dynamics of Language Maintenance Among Linguistic Minorities Jennifer Marie Bayer,1986

Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts ,1994 Iranian and Minority Languages at Home and in Diaspora Anousha Sedighi,2023-02-20 While the typology syntax and morphology of Iranian languages have been widely explored the sociolinguistic aspects remain largely understudied The present companion addresses this essential yet overlooked area of research in two ways i The book explores multilingualism within Iran and its neighbouring countries ii It also investigates Iranian heritage languages within the diasporic context of the West The scope of languages covered is vast In addition to discussing Iranian minority languages such as Tati and Balochi the book explores non Iranian minority languages such as Azeri Tukmen Armenian and Mandaic Furthermore the companion investigates Iranian heritage languages such as Wakhi Pashto and Persian within their diasporic and global contexts In the current era of migration and globalization minority and heritage speakers are increasingly valuable resources By focusing on the speakers the companion provides new insights into a multitude of sociolinguistic issues including language attitude and identity language use and literacy practices language policy language shift and loss The companion is an essential reference for those interested in Iranian languages minority languages heritage languages sociolinguistics bilingualism language policy and planning diaspora and migration studies as well as those researching in related fields Papers from the Ninth Scandinavian Conference of Linguistics Östen
