

Essential Literary Terms

allegory = Narrative of an extended metaphor with characters are personified abstractions, such as Death, Greed, Virtue.

alliteration = Repetition of the same consonant sounds, as in many miles Mary murdered.

allusion = Reference to a person, text, or event outside the text, as in these William Carlos Williams lines: According to Brueghel / When Icarus fell / it was spring—allusions to the 16th c. Dutch painter Brueghel and the Greek mythological figure Icarus.

ambiguity = Doubtfulness or uncertainty in interpretation.

ambivalence = Coexistence of opposing attitudes or feelings.

anachronism = Something that is out of its proper or chronological order, as in the reference to a clock in Shakespeare's Julius Caesar.

analogy = Comparison based on similarity; simile, metaphor, and allegory are examples of analogy.

anaphora = Repetition of the same word or words at the beginning of a series of phrases, lines, or sentences, as in these lines from an Elizabeth Barrett Browning sonnet: I love thee freely, as men strive for Right, / I love thee purely, as they hurt from Pride. Similar to parallelism, but in parallelism there is repetition of grammatical construction, not necessarily the repetition of the same word or words at the beginning.

anecdote = Brief story about an amusing or interesting (usually autobiographical) event.

antagonist = Principal character in opposition to the protagonist or hero of a narrative or drama.

antithesis = Figure of speech that emphasizes opposing ideas or attitudes by a juxtaposition of contrasting, but parallel words and phrases, as in E. M. Forster's line Death destroys a man, but the idea of death saves him.

apostrophe = figure of speech in which the narrator/speaker addresses an inanimate object as if alive.

archetype = Ideal example of a type; certain character or personality types have become established: for example, the rebel, the all-conquering hero, the country bumpkin, the self-made person, the traitor, the snob, the social climber. Even creatures have become archetypal emblems: lion, eagle, snake, hare, tortoise.

aside = Piece of dialogue intended for the theater audience and supposedly not heard by the other actors on stage.

bathos = When a writer strives to express the sublime (or sentimental), but goes too far and the piece becomes absurd and ridiculous, making it subject to satire.

blank verse = Verse consisting of unrhymed lines, usually of iambic pentameter (such as in Shakespeare's plays). It is believed to be the poetic pattern closest to natural speech.

caesura = Pause in a poetic line, usually denoted by punctuation such as a semicolon or comma.

catharsis = Release of emotional tension, as after an overwhelming experience, restoring or refreshing the spirit.

character = a round character is complex and has many traits, develops in a story—also called a dynamic character; a flat character does not change and has few traits, does not develop—also called a static character.

characterization = Act of creating and developing a character. There are two methods: Direct characterization = When the writer states or describes a character's traits. Indirect characterization = When the writer shows a character's personality through his or her actions, thoughts, feelings, words, and appearance, or through another character's observations and reactions.

cliché = Trite or overused expression or idea, like wise as an owl, be there for someone, he didn't know his own mind, see the writing on the wall, making the best of it.

conceit = Elaborate extended analogy comparing two very different things, creating a surprisingly apt parallel, such as this line from a famous Shakespeare sonnet, Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?

conflict = Opposition between characters or forces in a work of drama or fiction, especially opposition that motivates or shapes the action of the plot. Examples are human versus human, human versus Nature, human versus himself.

connotation = Associative meanings of a word in addition to its literal sense, as in starch (negative), odor (negative/neutral), smell (neutral), or aroma (positive). Connotation may be personal and individual, or general and universal.

denotation = Specific or direct meaning of a word found in the dictionary, in contrast to its figurative or associated meanings, which is called connotation. The denotation of home is a dwelling in which people live; the connotation is positive and comforting for most people.

dialect = Regional variety of a language distinguished by pronunciation, grammar, or vocabulary, especially a
