Erin S. Lane

A Beautiful Disaster Finding Hope In The Midst Of Brokenness:

A Beautiful Disaster Marlena Graves, 2014-06-10 Interweaving biblical insights and personal narratives this eloquently written book shows how God often uses suffering and desert experiences to form us into Christ's image Marlena Graves shares her experiences of growing up poor in a house plagued by mental illness as a means to explore the forces God uses to shape us into beautiful people in the midst of brokenness This book offers a window into suffering through the motif of desert spirituality revealing how God can use our painful experiences to show himself faithful While no one welcomes suffering God often uses desert experiences those we initially despise and wouldn't wish on anyone to transform us into beautiful souls who better resemble Jesus Graves shows how God can bring life out of circumstances reeking of death and destruction whether those circumstances are crises or daily doses of quiet desperation Readers who have experienced suffering and question God's purpose for it will benefit from this book as will counselors pastors professors and mentors It includes a foreword by John Ortberg and Laura Ortberg Turner

The Color of Life Cara Meredith, 2019-02-05 In this spiritual memoir a white woman in an interracial marriage and mixed race family paints a beautiful path from white privilege toward racial healing from ignorance toward seeing the image of God in everyone she meets Author and speaker Cara Meredith grew up in a colorless world From childhood she didn't think issues of race had anything to do with her and she was ignorant of many of the racial realities including individual and systemic racism in America today A colorblind rhetoric had been stamped across her education world view and Christian theology Then as an adult Cara's life took on new colorful hues She realized that white people in her generation seeking to move beyond ancestral racism had swung so far in believing a colorblind rhetoric that they tried to act as if they didn't see race at all When Cara met and fell in love with the son of black icon James Meredith the power of love helped her see color She began to notice the shades of life already present in the world around her while also learning to listen in new ways to black voices of the past After she married and their little family grew to include two mixed race sons Cara knew she would never see the world through a colorless lens again Cara Meredith's journey will serve as an invitation into conversations of justice race and privilege asking key questions such as What does it mean to navigate ongoing and desperately needed conversations of race and justice What does it mean for white people to listen and learn from the realities our black and brown brothers and sisters face every day What does it mean to teach the next generation a theology of justice reconciliation and love What does it mean to dig into the stories of our past both historically and theologically to see the imago Dei in everyone Plus Cara offers an extensive Notes and Recommended Reading section at the end of the book so you can continue learning listening and engaging in this important conversation
