Milk and Honey Tamar Novick, 2023-07-11 An innovative historical analysis of the intersection of religion and technology in making the modern state focusing on bodily production and reproduction across the human animal divide In Milk and Honey Tamar Novick writes a revolutionary environmental history of the state that centers on the intersection of technology and religion in modern Israel Palestine Focusing on animals and the management of their production and reproduction across three political regimes the late Ottoman rule British rule and the early Israeli state Novick draws attention to the ways in which settlers and state experts used agricultural technology to recreate a biblical idea of past plenitude literally a land flowing with milk and honey through the bodies of animals and people Novick presents a series of case studies involving the management of water buffalo bees goats sheep cows and people in Palestine Israel She traces the intimate forms of knowledge and bodily labor production and reproduction in which this process took place and the intertwining of bodily political and environmental realms in the transformation of Palestine Israel Her wide ranging approach shows technology never replaced religion as a colonial device Rather it merged with settler colonial aspirations to salvage the land bolstering the effort to seize control over territory and people Fusing technology religious fervor bodily labor and political ecology Milk and Honey provides a novel account of the practices that defined and continue to shape settler colonialism in the Palestine Israel revealing the ongoing entanglement of technoscience and religion in our time

Two She-Bears Meir Shalev, 2016-09-13 One of Israel's most celebrated novelists the acclaimed author of A Pigeon and A Boy gives us a story of village love and vengeance in the early days of British Palestine that is still being played out two generations later In the year 1930 three farmers committed suicide here but contrary to the chronicles of our committee and the conclusions of the British policeman the people of the moshava knew that only two of the suicides had actually taken their own lives whereas the third suicide had been murdered This is the contention of Ruta Tavori a high school teacher and independent thinker in this small farming community who is writing seventy years later about that murder about two charismatic men she loves and is trying to forgive her grandfather and her husband and about her son whom she mourns and misses In a story rich with the grit humor and near magical evocation of Israeli rural life for which Meir Shalev is beloved by readers Ruta weaves a tale of friendship between men and of love and betrayal which carries us from British Palestine to present day Israel where forgiveness atonement and understanding can finally happen Jewish Book World, 2008

Inter-Art Journey Nurit Yaari, 2015-04-01 In recent years inter medial studies have attracted increasing attention in arts theory The notion of inter mediality presupposes that each established art such as theatre painting and cinema indicates the existence of a particular medium which preserves its distinct features in translations from art to art and especially in its combinations with others in single works Nonetheless this field of research is presupposed already in the traditional studies of ekphrasis which focus on the verbal accounts of nonverbal works of art and in Wagner's notion of Gesamtkunstwerk This renewed interest generated new fields of research such as a the likelihood of the arts reflecting common grounds b the necessity of a shared metalanguage b the possibility of inter medial translation and d the inter medial coexistence within a single work of art without hindering the reading interpreting and experiencing abilities of receivers In honor of Eli Rozik Ph D professor emeritus former head of the Department of Theatre Studies and Dean of the Faculty of Arts Tel Aviv University this collection provides overviews of all these theoretical issues and tackles the contemporary practical questions that arise from attempts to transgress the boundaries between the established disciplines of arts studies Considering first the theoretical aspects of inter art inter mediality and nonverbal literacy Exploring the Common Grounds of the Arts goes on to discuss by means of performance analysis dialogues between the arts within a single work and correspondences between visual and auditory stimuli in musical contexts It concludes with a discussion of practical examples of inter mediality in religious representations official processions and public performances Translation Review ,2007 The Blue Mountain Meir Shalev,2002 The Blue Mountain is the first novel by one of Israel s most important and acclaimed contemporary writers and as with all his writing is a virtuoso example of Shalev s skill as a storyteller Published to outstanding reviews all over the world its publication in Britain re affirms his reputation as a major international writer Set in a small rural village prior to the creation of the State of Israel this funny and hugely imaginative book paints an extraordinary picture of a small community of Ukrainian immigrants as they succeed in pioneering a new life in a new land over three generations The Blue Mountain transcends its time and place by touching on issues of universal relevance whilst never failing to entertain and engage the reader As with Four Meals the writing is lyrical and of exceptional quality and illustrates why Shalev has been steadily winning an ever increasing number of fans worldwide The Publishers Weekly ,2007 Talking Book Topics ,2009

The Loves of Judith Meir Shalev,2012-08-28 A woman with three loves and a son with three fathers a universal story of passion and personal destiny by the award winning author of A Pigeon and A Boy When the mysterious Judith arrives in a small agricultural village in Palestine in the 1930s she attracts attention of three men Moshe a widowed farmer Globberman a wealthy cattle dealer and Jacob who loses his wife the most beautiful woman in the village because of his obsession with Judith who insists on living in a cowshed rather than settling down with any of her admirers When she gives birth to Zayde all three suitors consider him their son and Zayde who tragically loses Judith imbibes their triple wisdom and their distinct versions of his origins As Zayde pieces together the beguiling story of the singular woman who was his mother Meir Shalev weaves a magical novel of the joys and secrets of village life of an unconventional family and the unexpected fruits of love

Digital Talking Books Plus ,2009 2006,□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ Beginnings Meir Shalev,2011-03-01 The bestselling and prize winning Israeli author Meir Shalev describes the many firsts of the Bible the first love and the first death to the first laugh and the first dream providing a fresh secular and surprising look at the stories we think we know The first kiss in the Bible is not a kiss of love The first love in the Bible is not the love of a man and a woman The first hatred in the Bible is the hatred of a man toward his wife The first laugh in the Bible is also the last In Beginnings Meir Shalev reintroduces us to the heroes and heroines of the Old Testament exploring these and many more of the Bible s unexpected firsts Combining penetrating wit deep empathy and impressive knowledge of the Bible he probes each episode to uncover nuances and implications that a lesser writer would overlook and his nontraditional nonreligious interpretations of the famous stories of the Bible take them beyond platitudes and assumptions to the love fear tragedy and inspiration at their heart Literary inquisitive and honest Shalev makes these stories come alive in all their complicated beauty and though these stories are ancient their resonance remains intensely contemporary First 60 Years of the Achievement of Israeli Literature, 1948-2008 ,2008 My Russian Grandmother and Her American Vacuum Cleaner Meir Shalev,2011-10-04 From the author of the acclaimed novel A Pigeon and a Boy comes a charming tale of family ties over the top housekeeping and the sport of storytelling in Nahalal the village of Meir Shalev's birth. Here we meet Shalev's amazing Grandma Tonia who arrived in Palestine by boat from Russia in 1923 and lived in a constant state of battle with what she viewed as the family's biggest enemy in their new land: dirt. Grandma Tonia was never seen without a cleaning rag over her shoulder. She received visitors outdoors. She allowed only the most privileged guests to enter her spotless house. Hilarious and touching, Grandma Tonia and her regulations come richly to life in a narrative that circles around the arrival into the family's dusty agricultural midst of the big shiny American sweeper sent as a gift by Great uncle Yeshayahu, he who had shockingly emigrated to the sinful capitalist heaven of Los Angeles. America to little Meir and to his forebears was a land of hedonism and enchanting progress of tempting luxuries, dangerous music, and degenerate gum chewing, and of women with painted fingernails. The sweeper, a stealth weapon from Grandpa Aharon's American brother, meant to beguile the hardworking socialist household with a bit of American ease, was symbolic of the conflicts and visions of the family in every respect. The fate of Tonia's svieper hidden away for decades in a spotless closed-off bathroom after its initial use is a family mystery that Shalev determines to solve. The result in this cheerful translation by Evan Fallenberg is pure delight as Shalev brings to life the obsessive but loving Tonia, the pioneers who gave his childhood its spirit of wonder and the grit and humor of people building ever new lives.
