Radio for the Millions Isabel Huacuja Alonso,2023-01-03 Co winner 2023 AIPS Book Prize American Institute of Pakistan Studies Finalist 2023 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association From news about World War II to the broadcasting of music from popular movies radio played a crucial role in an increasingly divided South Asia for more than half a century Radio for the Millions examines the history of Hindi Urdu radio during the height of its popularity from the 1930s to the 1980s showing how it created transnational communities of listeners Isabel Huacuja Alonso argues that despite British Indian and Pakistani politicians efforts to usurp the medium for state purposes radio largely escaped their grasp She demonstrates that the medium enabled listeners and broadcasters to resist the cultural linguistic and political agendas of the British colonial administration and the subsequent independent Indian and Pakistani governments Rather than being merely a tool of nation building in South Asia radio created affective links that defied state agendas policies and borders It forged an enduring transnational soundscape even after the 1947 Partition had made a united India a political impossibility Huacuja Alonso traces how people engaged with radio across news music and drama broadcasts arguing for a more expansive definition of what it means to listen She develops the concept of radio resonance to understand how radio relied on circuits of oral communication such as rumor and gossip and to account for the affective bonds this talk created By
