Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church Warren Anthony Kappeler, 2009 Communication has become an important theme and heuristic concept in practical theology for Roman Catholics during the ecumenical age Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church explains why the moral order is given priority in Vatican teaching about communication and the reasons for Catholic social teaching to make moral judgments about these new realities Attention is given in the book to the historical context of Vatican Councils I and II The first chapter shows that behind the pilgrim Church lies an emerging vision of the threefold ecclesial offices of priest prophet and king Chapter two examines the text and context of the Second Vatican Council's pastoral decree Inter Mirifica Chapter three provides a documented history of the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Social Communication and its teachings In chapter four we return to the threefold office and examine the contribution of Pope John Paul II It includes an analysis of how the politics of the Magisterium shapes Catholic social teaching Chapter five develops major tenets of a critical analysis of the communication of the post Vatican II Church attention is given to the discursive aspects of religious authority argumentation bureaucratization and market culture Chapter six takes a step toward examining the pragmatics of contemporary Vatican teaching For Roman Catholic moral theology religious ethics is now deeply concerned with providing moral teaching and guidance on ethical questions raised by the social conditions of globalization and media communication Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church concludes that there are three basic sociological and theological aspects of the pilgrim Church These include a ritual approach to religious communication the generational experience of Catholics and their respective attitudes toward Church teaching and the important link in the faith's praxis between reflexivity and forming habits of communication

Conflict and Catholic Social Ethics Taylor J. Ott, 2024-11-01 This book focuses on the question of how to understand conflict and its place in Catholic and Christian social ethics The author examines Catholic social teaching CST for its explicit mentions of conflict or contention and analyzes the way that CST addresses the subjects of peace labor and environment While CST offers precedent to think about conflict within the frame of Catholic ethics its lack of explicit engagement remains a major obstacle to a full rich and concrete understanding of the fabric of society and the work of social justice Any social ethic that is not informed by the presence of conflict misses a major dynamic in society and therefore leads to ethical judgements that are at best inadequate and at worst actively harmful Building upon the insight of respected thinkers within Catholic social thought this study is based on an interdisciplinary method that engages sociology political theory postcolonial theory and intersectional feminist ethics The book will be of particular interest to theological ethicists and those who work with modern CST

E. M. Conradie,2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa The Book Buyer ,1909 Serve and Protect Tobias Winright,2020-11-13 This collection of essays on policing and the use of force while written over the course of the last twenty five years remains relevant and timely Although issues in policing and questions about excessive force and brutality have been addressed by criminologists sociologists philosophers and criminal justice ethicists only a handful of theological ethicists treat this pressing matter While the Christian moral tradition has a voluminous record of theological attention to violence and nonviolence war and peace there is a dearth of references to policing And most considerations of criminal justice issues by Christians and their churches concentrate on prison reform or abolition and the death penalty but not policing These essays authored by a theological ethicist possessing professional experience in law enforcement seek to fill this curious gap They offer a framework for moral reasoning concerning the justification for police use of force and the just application of such force and they propose just policing as a model that is consonant with promoting a just peace in communities and society In addition they explore the implications of such an approach for wider international questions about just war terrorism the responsibility to protect and post war justice The Index ... Benjamin Franklin Underwood,1882 The Lamp ,1904 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1888 New Covenant ,2001 Book Review Digest ,1917 National Catholic Welfare Council Bulletin ,1925 Standard Catalog: Social Sciences Section H.W.
