Mancoff, 2014-04-23 The Arthurian legend closes with a promise On a distant day when his country calls the king will return His lost realm will be regained and his shattered dream of an ideal world will at last be realized This collection of original essays explores the issue of return in the modern Arthurian legend With an Introduction by noted scholar Raymond H Thompson and 13 essays by authors from the fields of literature art history film history and folklore this collection reveals the flexibility of the legend Just as the modern legend takes the form current to its generation the myth of return generates a new legend with each telling As these authors show return can come in the form of a noble king or a Caribbean immigrant with the mystery of an art theft or a dying boy's dream

The Grail Legend in Modern Literature John Barry Marino, 2004 The Grail legends have in modern times been appropriated by a number of different scholarly schools of thought their approaches are analysed here This study shows how modern including postmodern adaptations of the Grail legend correspond to trends in the scholarly community and how the legend has been appropriated by competing world views There are three parallel trends in Grail scholarship and modern adaptations of the legend controversy over Christian or pagan origins secularization by way of humanism and esoteric mysticism These three trends reflect movements in popular culture Relativism and multiculturalism influence Christian pagan cultural conflict in the adaptations Mythographers maintain the legend's appeal in a humanist culture by considering the Grail metaphor rather than material actuality modern adaptations then transform the Grail from a particularly Christian symbol to one with universal application in an increasingly secular society Modern esoteric spiritualities allow the Grail actuality with flexible meaning This study then demonstrates how the Grail legend is transformed and adapted from medieval to modern cultures and continues to evolve today JOHN B MARINO is adjunct instructor Maryville University and Saint Louis University
