Morrow, Dorothy S. Strickland, Deborah Gee Woo, 1998 The authors describe the results of their study of one school where some kindergarten classes were changed from half day to full day sessions They include specific details about their methodology and assessment results and suggest plans for designing the curriculum and organizing the classroom for both full and half day sessions Teaching as Inquiry Lynn T. Hill, Andrew J. Stremmel, Victoria R. Fu, 2005 This text helps teach pre service teachers the art of inquiry instilling in students a sense of wonder curiosity asking questions looking for answers and making sense of the world in different ways The authors see teaching as an art that supports the learner in multiple ways using different tools that are responsive to their individual orientation or to their multiple intelligences Teaching as Inquiry is based on best practice and centers around the philosophies of Reggio Emilia as well as Dewey Vygotsky Piaget Gardner and others The book has a unique structure that focuses on helping future teachers understand the theory and apply it practically Each chapter begins with a story from the classroom followed by a list of questions to be considered throughout the chapter
